Some estimated the damage as very heavy throughout the valley.

HEARING TESTIMONY.

Depositions Taken To-Day in Tom Smith Land Case.
 The last of the testimony in the land case of Tom Smith against the Northern Pacific Railroad and C. A. Smith is being heard to-day by Commissioner Selby. He is taking depositions to be forwarded to Roseburg. Several witnesses were examined, Smith has a homestead claim on which scrip has been placed and the suit is to decide the ownership of the land.

DID YOU KNOW?

That J. H. Keating, of the North Bend Milk Condensary, wrote the popular song, "Just As the Sun Went Down" and many other well known popular ditties.

That Capt. Matson of Marshfield at one time saved the life of Capt. Bob Evans of the American Navy.

That David Y. Stafford, the candy man, was at one time the champion clothing salesman of Illinois.

That H. J. McKeown, landlord of the Chandler Hotel, can cut a suit of clothes equal to a Paris tailor, and he was a successful merchant tailor in Minnesota.

That E. D. McArthur was a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

Personal Notes

E. W. KAMMERER has gone to Ten Mile for a few days' outing.

DR. E. MINGUS is expected home today from a trip to Curry county.

REV. G. LEROY HALL has returned from Sumner, where he held services last night.

MRS. WM. HORSFALL, Jr., has issued invitations for a bridge party Friday afternoon at her home.

MRS. M. C. HORTON has issued invitations for Saturday afternoon for a farewell for Mrs. W. C. Bradley.

MRS. EUGENE O'CONNELL was hostess at a luncheon at her home at Kittyville Wednesday afternoon.

DR. MARTIN KEATING of Portland is spending a couple of weeks with his son, J. H. Keating of North Bend.

MRS. W. A. THEIS and family expect to leave soon for Portland, where they will join Mr. Theis, who is now located there.

MRS. REBECCA LUSE-STUMP and daughter, Catherine, will leave soon for San Francisco to visit friends and relatives.

MRS. I. S. KAUFMAN will entertain the Bridge Quartette and a few of their invited friends Friday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. W. C. Bradley, who will leave soon for Portland to reside.

J. H. FLETCHER, who is employed in the composing room of the Roseburg Review, left for his home via Myrtle Point this morning after spending a week's vacation in this vicinity.

DR. W. L. KARR and wife and mother, Mrs. E. A. Karr, of Shattuck, Okla., brother and mother of Mrs. L. W. Langdon, arrived on the Breakwater Tuesday to spend a few weeks visiting on Coos Bay.

DENNIS K. McDONALD of Lakeside was in the city to-day on business. Mr. McDonald reports that section free from forest fires, but says there was a dense smoke, indicating a bad blaze in the Umpqua forest.

AL SMITH was down from Coos River yesterday on business. He reports that Mr. Vaughn, of the McDonald-Vaughn Logging Company, informed him that the forest fire on Daniels Creek was getting mighty hot.

MISS EDITH M. DUNNING and the Misses Meezen, who have been spending the summer with Mr. Meezen on the Bay, expect to leave on the next trip of the Nann Smith for Berkeley, Calif., where the Misses Meezen will attend school the coming year.

FRANK L. MILLER, high priest of the Royal Arch Masons of Oregon, who has been visiting the lodges in this section, left this morning on the overland route for Roseburg. He is highly pleased with Coos Bay and was surprised to see the developments that have taken place since his visit three years ago.

WALTER W. DUGGAN of Curry county, an old time pioneer and the man that the ladies and the children liked to deal with while employed in the meat market here, is spending a few days' vacation. Walter tackled a strange fish in Rogue River that pretty nearly pulled him down to the coral shells.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Clarence World is expected here on the Breakwater to visit his brother, C. H. World.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Faby and children, Robert and Hazel, of Bullards, are camping on South Inlet. Mrs. R. W. Simpson and Hally will leave in a few days to spend a week with them.

Henry Sanford's fourteen-year-old son, who was injured by J. E. Schilling's auto in Marshfield last Saturday night, is getting along as well as could be expected, and it is not believed that any permanent injuries were sustained. Young Sanford was stealing a ride on the rear of the auto and jumped off backward, being thrown to the pavement with terrific force. He was stunned for a time and was taken by W. P. Murphy to his home in Marshfield, where he was cared for until Sunday. The Sanford family formerly lived on Haynes Inlet.

Miss Essie Butler of Bandon opened school Monday at the Glen Junction school.

Bert Gray held a meeting at the Price Grove on Sunday afternoon. At the close of the service Miss Bennett was baptized.

NEWS OF ALLEGANY.

Mr. Mahaffy and family spent Wednesday at Golden Falls.

DECIDES CASES.

Judge Coke Disposes of Several Suits in Circuit Court.
 Judge John S. Coke has handed down several decisions in cases which he heard in the Circuit Court. One of the most important of these was the case of the Simpson Lumber Company against Oscar Hamilton. It was a suit to reform a deed. The Judge decided in favor of the plaintiff, giving a decree reforming the deed.

Another case in which a decision was given was that of Ferrey against Endicott. It was a suit to quiet a title in which timber rights were involved. The court decided in favor of the plaintiff, entering a decree which quiets the title of the property.

GETS TWO ESTATES.

J. P. Tupper of Coquille Inherits Eastern Property.

COQUILLE, Ore., August 25.—J. P. Tupper, the ex-hotel man, and granddaughter, Miss Agnes Tupper, of this city, have returned from an extended trip East, having made their longest stay at Boston. Mr. Tupper found the papers all straight in regard to the estate of a deceased uncle to which he is an heir, and which he went to look after, but it will have to go through the British courts before it is settled. He also learned of another large estate to which he is an heir that will be looked into later on.

but his experience on the great lakes in the East saved him.
