

"INCENSO"

Something New Under the Sun!

The Oriental Deodorant for perfuming and deodorizing homes and public places. INCENSO is a compound of gums, spices and tropical plants, creates an odor that will permeate the entire house with a delicate rich odor that will last a long time. Nothing like it ever before obtainable. Every home is possessed of odors which, though not noticeable to the occupants, are plainly discernible to callers. Highly recommended by physicians and nurses in sick rooms.

 At 4.43 P. M. 62
 Wind, Northwest; Partly Cloudy.

Many Fires.—Cell Ireland, who is spending a month with relatives at Ollalla, writes that there are many fires in that section, the smoke being so dense that one can see only a short distance.

Get Buck.—Joe Josephson, Gordon Smith and Ray Ollivant yesterday secured a fine buck up near Blue Ridge. They sighted eight or ten, the animals evidently had been frightened out by the forest fires.

Churchill Here.—The schooner Churchill, of the Simpson fleet, is in port at North Bend having just returned from Chile. The Churchill seldom puts in here as she is used mostly in the foreign trade.

Visited Ivy Condon.—Sunday, a party composed of Jack Flanagan, Charles Howard, Dr. W. Haydon and Watt Short went up Coos River and spent the day with Ivy Condon at his dairy ranch on the north fork.

Sends Check.—The Marshfield public library committee to-day received a check for $100 from W. S. Chandler as a contribution towards establishing the institution. The donation is greatly appreciated, especially at this time as the committee is sorely in need of funds to pay for new books ordered.

Got One Deer.—H. J. McKeown, Jim Baines and the others who spent Saturday on the lower coast, have returned and have been telling some great hunting stories. Mr. McKeown insists he got a fine deer, and Senator Baines says he will vouch for that, but others are insisting that they get a taste of the venison before they will accept Mr. McKeown's claims of prowess.

Went to Beach.—A number of Marshfield people went to the beach Sunday to spend the day. They landed on the north spit and enjoyed bathing and had a fine day, as the weather was especially fine for a beach party. There was not as much wind as usual. In the party were P. A. Haines, R. O. Graves, Ed. Sullivan, William Sullivan and wife, Mr. Blott, Mr. Justin of Wisconsin and Tom Nichols and wife.

Not in Contempt.—Harry G. Hoy says that Herbert Hume's statement that the Union Fisheries Company was in contempt of court for violating an injunction granted by the county court is erroneous. He says that Judge Hamilton held that the county court injunction was insufficient. Mr. Hoy also says that Judge Hamilton's ruling does not prohibit the fishing from an anchored boat in midstream, as Mr. Hume contends it does.

Back From Roseburg.—D. L. Foote returned Saturday night from an auto trip to Roseburg. He made the round trip via Myrtle Point without any breakdown, but he says he won't attempt it again. While at Roseburg he was engaged for some special trips by Senator Abrams, who is making a tour in behalf of his candidacy for Governor. He reports that gasoline that sells for eighteen cents per gallon here sells for thirty cents in Roseburg. Between Roseburg and Myrtle Point, he burned ten gallons of oil.
