Entertains Friends.—Miss Uma Marsh entertained a few friends at her home last evening.

Was at Conference.—Through an error yesterday, the name of A. H. Powers was omitted from the list of Marshfield men in attendance at the conference with Vice-President Calvin and the other Southern Pacific officials at C. J. Mills' offices last Saturday evening.

Band Concert.—The Coos Bay concert band will give a concert at the Marshfield park next Sunday afternoon.

Council To-Night.—The Marshfield city council will meet to-night to take up street and sewer matters and other business.

Judge Here.—Judge Hamilton of Roseburg arrived in the city to-day from Curry county. He has been holding court at Gold Beach.

Goes Camping.—Dr. W. Haydon and son left to-day for Charleston Bay. They will camp on the beach near Charleston for a week.

Open Stationery Store.—A. L. Barnes of Bandon was in the city to-day on business. Mr. Barnes recently opened a stationery specialty shop at Bandon.

Buy's Factory.—T. A. Bachelor, who recently arrived here from Ukiah, Calif., has purchased the Brown Buck Cigar Factory from C. A. Howard and will operate it.

Will Wed.—Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Agnes Louise Gulovson and Willis M. Hubbs, which will be solemnized on Wednesday evening, September 7th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gulovson, at 1212 Minnesota avenue, Portland, Oregon. The bride-to-be is well known on the Bay, having resided here with her parents until a couple of years ago. A number of her relatives from here will be in attendance.

Lands Big Fish.—A. K. Peck, who went fishing with a party of three others, on the north fork of the Coquille River, had a great fight with a big seven-pound steel head salmon last Sunday. He was fishing with a small trout fly and light pole. The big fish broke the pole so the reel would not work and Mr. Peck had only a short line left on which to play. When the fish made a dive Mr. Peck went in the water after him and by playing his line in this way finally tired out the fish and landed him.

Very Ill.—B. D. Jones, a well known Empire pioneer, is reported critically ill at Mercy Hospital in North Bend.

New Clerk.—Ed. Welder, who has been clerking in Herman Hillier's cigar store, resigns his position to-morrow and will leave in a week to attend Columbia University. His place will be taken by Leslie Blanchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen will leave to-morrow on the steamer Bandon for San Pedro. The Bandon does not carry passengers, but they will go as guests of the owners of the vessel.

In From Homestead.—C. E. Nicholson has returned from his homestead in the Sand Hills. Mrs. Nicholson is there. They were both in the city for a month's visit, but have returned to the homestead to continue their residence. Mr. Nicholson is preparing some of the ground with the view of planting cranberries. He has a tract which is adapted to that purpose.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Miss Maggie Miller of Marshfield visited friends here during the week. Mrs. W. Dingman, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever, is reported to be some better.

Mrs. M. E. Perry, who has been visiting friends at Salom, returned on the Breakwater.

The Omega came down from Porter and is taking on a cargo of lumber at the old North Bend mill.

The steam schooner Hornet has finished taking on a cargo of lumber and will sail to-day for San Pedro.

The Echo, which has been anchored out from North Bend, sailed up to Porter to take on a cargo of lumber.

Miss Frances Wood, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Geo. Reynolds, returned to her home at Boise, Idaho.

Thomas Rennie, who sprained his ankle while helping fight the fire at Empire, is able to be at work at the mill again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Landrith, who are on their honeymoon, visiting friends and relatives in the East, are expected home soon.

Chas. Caughell and Miss Nellie Doyle were married last Saturday evening at the Mercy hospital chapel at North Bend, the Rev. Father Gallagher officiating. The bride is a well known school teacher, is the sister of Mrs. E. C. Mather of North Bend and daughter of Hon. Doyle of Wedderburn. Mr. Caughell has charge of the cold storage plant at Wedderburn, where the young couple will reside. A week ago, a brother of the bride, Chas. Doyle and Miss Sylvia Miller, both of Wedderburn, were married on the Bay and went to Portland on their honeymoon trip.

MADE TRIP IN BUICK.

I. R. Tower, agent for the Buick in Coos county, calls attention to the fact that Vice-President Calvin and party made the hard trip up the coast to Coos Bay in a Buick, the same model as the Buick Mr. Tower has here. Despite the hard roads and the fact that it was carrying five men weighing 1,000 and their baggage, the Buick came through without a single mishap. This should be an important lesson to prospective auto buyers in Coos county.

FOR THE QUEEN OF THE BAY, SEE EASTSIDE.

E. W. KAMMERER and son returned yesterday from an enjoyable outing and fishing trip at Ten Mile. Ed. brought home several fish stories, but—well, how can you expect a man to keep fish in any such weather as this, anyhow.

MISS MAMIE GULOVSON and Helen Gulovson left yesterday on the Breakwater to attend the marriage of Miss Agnes Gulovson, a former teacher of the Marshfield public schools.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Mrs. C. S. Winsor of North Bend is a niece of Mrs. Susan B. Anthony?

That J. W. Bennett was one of the pioneer newspapermen of Coos county, having been one of the publishers of the paper at Empire, before he studied law?

That Dorsey Kretzer practised law in Ohio before he became a bank cashier?

That John D. Goss was formerly county judge in Wisconsin and previous to entering the law built and promoted telephones and earlier was in the newspaper game? He has tried to suppress the latter fact and so have we but the truth will out.
