COQUILLE NEWS.	MYRTLE POINT NOTES.	COUNTY SEAT NEWS.
Facts of Interest Taken From the Coquille Valley Sentinel.	News of the District as Reported in the Enterprise.	Doings of Coquille People as Told in The Herald.

C. F. McKnight, Marshfield's celebrated legal light, was a Coquille visitor this week.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. William Mehl, near Johnson's mill, on Monday, August 29, 1910, a daughter.

Died.—At Fruitvale, Calif., on August 15, 1910, Rev. Raynsford Taylor, in his eightieth year. Deceased was the father of Mrs. V. R. Wilson and Mrs. Walter Culin of this city.

Fire was discovered in the W. H. Thomas barn near the court house between 10 and 11 o'clock Thursday night and an alarm turned in. The fire company responded quickly, but the fire was extinguished before the company reached the scene. The fire was in a box of rags in the granary and the granary was locked. It is said the box did not belong there and no one seems to know how it got there. This is the second time this barn has caught fire this year. The barn contained a large quantity of hay and there were teams and vehicles quartered there at the time. No damage was done, the fire being extinguished before it burned the box and got to the building.

Woodmen Will Hold Celebration at Dairyville Next Week.

Notwithstanding the heavy loss Dairyville sustained by fire, the Woodmen of that camp are going ahead with the celebration as advertised. The proceeds of everything will be given to the heavy losers from the fire. The accommodations will be almost as good as before the fire, as most of the bedding and dishes were saved from the hotel and temporary quarters have been secured in Bowman's large hall. There should be a larger crowd than ever as all the funds raised will go to a worthy cause.—Gold Beach Globe.

The following is of interest in Coos county, as Mr. and Mrs. Tripplett formerly lived in Myrtle Point: A flying rock from one of the Oregon Trunk powder crews recently crashed through the roof of the Creed Tripplett house in Bend, and narrowly missed killing the two-year-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Tripplett. At the time the child was asleep in a baby buggy. The rock in its descent struck the side of the buggy, badly splintering it and missing the sleeping babe by about six inches, and the child was uninjured. The rock, which weighed about 15 pounds, tore a big hole through the roof.
