Speaking of Medicines

Does not necessarily mean a discussion of mysterious and fearful things. With us, medicines are seriously practical, absolutely plain, truthful and reliable compounds, the merits of which have been found adequate and trustworthy. Your physician knows what your need is. He also knows the results that should be accomplished when his prescription is honestly prepared, and when we can assure you that our prescription department makes a specialty of dispensing Parke, Davis & Co.'s, Lilly & Co.'s Merck & Co.'s, Burroughs, Wellcome & Co.'s pharmaceutical products, you need have no doubt; your physician will assure that when we prepare your medicine no better could be procured.
