Have Social.—Masco Lodge of the Degree of Honor of Marshfield enjoyed a social last evening.

Meet Next Week.—The city council of North Bend hold the next regular meeting next Tuesday.

Back From Coquille.—The following lawyers returned from Coquille on the noon train: W. U. Douglas, Judge Schibrede, C. R. Peck and Tom Bennett.

Teach at Libby.—D. L. Rood of Marshfield, a veteran Coos county school teacher, has been elected principal of the Libby school for the ensuing year.

Goes to Portland.—H. E. Morrish, who has been foreman of The Times for the past two years has resigned and removed with his family to Portland.

land where they expect to make their future home. During their stay in Marshfield Mr. and Mrs. Morrish made many friends who regret their departure.

Dr. Tower Improved.—Dr. C. W. Tower was on the streets this morning for the first time in three months. He was kept busy receiving the felicitations of his many friends on his recovery from a severe siege of illness.

Here From Yaquina.—The gasoline boat Blue Bell was here from Yaquina Bay. Capt. Saltus and Ray Smack were the only ones on board. They brought some household goods to this port and will fish on the way back home.

Goes to Rogue River.—L. W. Myrick, who for some time past has been foreman in the machine shop of the Nelson Iron Works, has left for Wedderburn, where he will look after the machinery in the cannery for the Hume estate.

Starts Millinery.—Mrs. Inez T. Wright, of Portland, has rented a portion of the Ladies' Emporium and has opened a Metropolitan Millinery Establishment. Mrs. Wright was so favorably impressed with the prospects of Coos Bay that she decided to locate here permanently.

New Priest Coming.—Rev. Father Springer, who has been stationed at Woodburn, Oregon, is expected here on the Breakwater to assume charge of the North Bend Catholic parish in place of the Rev. Father D. P. Curley, who has been transferred to Eugene. Rev. Father Moran is expected back to Marshfield within a week or so.

No Confirmation Here.—The following appeared in the Portland Journal: "It was reported on the waterfront this morning that the steamer Newport was to be taken off the Bandon run. No confirmation of the rumor could be made, however." C. F. McGeorge, the local agent, states that he knew nothing of any such change.

Give Parties.—Three social functions took place yesterday. Mrs. J. T. McCormac entertained a few friends at her home as did Mrs. M. C. Horton and Mrs. Wm. Grimes, the latter being in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Houseworth of Cashion, Okla. Monday evening, Dr. A. L. Houseworth and wife entertained for Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Houseworth.

Boat Had Trouble.—The steam schooner Washalora had some trouble at Bandon Sunday. While entering the river she struck on the jetty but backed away, so it is reported. Then she went on the rocks and was pulled off by the tug. Later she ran into the schooner Oregon and finally ran onto the mudflats. She is now undergoing repairs.

Caught Big Fish.—Mrs. F. S. Dow and family returned yesterday from their summer outing on Coos River where they caught lots of tan and good health and best of all Mrs. Dow caught a 30-inch fish, breaking this season's record.

On Outing.—I. R. Tower, Ray Kaufman, Lyle Savage and Chas. Keane left this morning for the Merchant ranch near Bullards, where they will enjoy a few days' outing. They sent Tom Goodale ahead with an auto load of campaign supplies and sufficient wire to string all the venison in Coos and Curry counties, according to Jay Tower, who was keeping tabs on their supplies.

Has Sufficient Names.—Portland newspapers caused quite a stir here by printing a story to the effect that Hugh McLain's candidacy for railroad commissioner died in the bud because he didn't have sufficient names on his petitions to get his name on the ballot. However, the report was erroneous as Mr. McLain is in receipt of a telegram from Oswald West saying that Mr. McLain's name went on the ballot all right.

REDONDO sails at 2 O'CLOCK THURSDAY for SAN FRANCISCO with PASSENGERS.

Light as a Feather

That's what you like to hear them say when they taste your bread and biscuits. Some times they are not as light and tasty as you would wish for. It isn't your fault. It's the flour you use, probably. Your baking will always be successful with Snow Drift Flour. It isn't a bleached flour. It's made from selected Northwestern grown Blue Stem Wheat. One sack from your grocer will convince you.
