

BILLIARD PARLOR SOLD.

Robert Marsden, Jr., Bought Out By Eastern Oregon Man.
Robert Marsden, Jr., has sold his cigar store and billiard room, which is known as Bob's Billiard Parlor, to Edward Richmond of Eastern Oregon. The sale was made a week or two ago but has just been announced by Mr. Marsden. The new owner is a cattle man of Eastern Oregon and will be here about the first of the month to take possession.
Mr. Marsden will take a vacation for a time and later on expects to embark in another line of business in Marshfield. He has conducted the billiard parlor for quite a long time and established a good business.

PERRY TAKEN TO COQUILLE

His Attorneys Are Endeavoring to Secure Bail For their Client.

W. B. Perry, formerly of Coaluga, Cal., who was promoting a consolidation of the weekly papers of Coos County, and who was arrested on a telegram from that city stating that there was against him a charge of embezzlement, was taken to Coquille this morning by Sheriff Gage. He was confined in the county jail. Mr. Perry's attorney, E. L. C. Farrin, is making an effort to secure bond for him, but has been unsuccessful and consequently Mr. Perry had to spend last night in the city jail.

George Farrin, of the firm of Farrin and Farrin, stated this morning that Mr. Perry was at loss to know why there should be a warrant against him "unless it was due to spite work." E. L. C. Farrin accompanied Sheriff Gage and his prisoner to Coquille this morning.

Bond $400.

The bond in Perry's case was fixed at $400 and his attorneys are arranging to give the bond and have him released.

To the Ladies of Coos Bay:

I desire to announce that I have just opened a line of the VERY LATEST STYLES in PATTERN AND TAILORED HATS, embracing all the Fall and Winter showings in the Eastern millinery centers. They are now ready for your inspection at the LADIES' EMPORIUM. Also stylish hats made from your own materials.
