Congressman Coming.—Congressman Dennis Flynn of Oklahoma is expected here shortly to visit his old friend, Col. Grimes, and to look this section over.

No Party Given.—Through an error, it was stated in The Times yesterday that Mrs. M. C. Horton had entertained Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Horton gave no party Tuesday and doubtless some other social event was credited to her.

Postmaster Leaves.—Postmaster W. B. Curtis left this afternoon on the steamer Redondo for San Francisco to spend a vacation of several weeks. He will visit relatives in San Francisco and will probably also visit other California points.

Leave on Redondo.—Aaron Runners and Robert McCoskell took passage on the Redondo for San Francisco this afternoon.

Having Good Time.—H. C. Wells, who is spending a few weeks in Curry county with Lee Edwards and Hillis Short, has telephoned friends here that he is having the time of his life. He didn't say how many varmints they have secured.

Leave the Camp.—Nine of the men employed at the Smith Basin logging camp arrived in the city to-day. They had a difference with the Chinese cook, which resulted in the men leaving the camp. They will all go to the Isthmus Slough camp of the Smith-Powers Company.

Delay Charter.—Owing to City Attorney Goss not having had time to go over the proposed new city charter, the city council did not finally pass on it at its last meeting. The charter is a voluminous document and the bill for its presentation was $625, fees for Attorneys McKnight, Selby and Upton for drafting it and Miss Violet Henderson for copying it.

Want Ad. Does It.—"Stop that want ad. of mine for I have sold all those guns," telephoned J. H. Keating of North Bend to-day. The want ad. brought him the buyers and were bringing him so many inquiries that they were getting bothersome. Others have the same experience with Times want ads.

Kill Cow.—Ernest Grandell of Bunker Hill sustained the loss of a valuable cow a few days ago, the critter being shot through the head. While it may have been an accident, Mr. Grandell thinks that possibly some one did it for spite work. He is investigating some clues and may prosecute some one for the dastardly trick.

Are in Finland.—John Bloom and family of Eastside, who are now visiting their old home in Finland, writes their pastor, the Rev. J. Richard Olson, that they are enjoying health and the visit with old friends, particularly their old parents. They wish and the visit with old friends, particularly about Coos Bay. They have not decided how long they will remain there.

PERRY GIVES BOND.

Returns From Coquille Last Evening After Furnishing Bail.

W. B. Perry returned from Coquille last evening having furnished a bond in the sum of $400 in the county court in the case of his arrest on a telegram from Coalinga, Cal., stating that he was wanted there on a charge of embezzlement. Mr. Perry went to Coquille with the Sheriff and as soon as the court set the amount of the bond the bail was given by his Bandon relatives. Mr. Perry states that he knows nothing further regarding the charge against him and is at a loss to know the grounds on which it has been made. He has telegraphed his attorney there to look into the case.

CANDY For Fastidious Folks

Our toothsome home-made candies are a revelation to the candy lover. They are so rich, so temptingly good, and so delicately flavored that once eaten they are never forgotten. They are absolutely pure; therefore good for little folks as well as big folks. "Stafford's" chocolates are the purest and best of chocolate coated confections. They have NOT just arrived from San Francisco or any other town, but are made fresh daily in our own little candy shop by expert candy makers. They know how. Lots of new drinks and dishes at our fountain.
