MILTON HINCH FATALLY HURT

Crushed Under Wheels of Logging Train at Isthmus Inlet Camp.

Milton Hinch, employed at the Isthmus Inlet camp of the Smith-Powers Company, was fatally injured on the logging railroad last night. After work, Hinch was walking along the track near the camp with Charles Johnson, another logger. A logging train was passing and Hinch attempted to board it and was thrown under the wheels. The left leg was broken and the flesh torn from the bone. He also sustained internal injuries. Hinch was put on the train and brought through to Marshfield and taken on a boat to Mercy Hospital. It was seen from the first that there was scarcely any hope for his recovery and he was made as comfortable as possible.

Hinch is 38 years old and is a half-breed Indian. His father was a white man and his mother an Indian. The accident recalls another tragedy in the family. Hinch's father many years ago killed Mr. Wickman at Empire. He fled to the woods and R. M. Wieder, who was Sheriff at the time, searched all winter for the man but did not find him. Finally Hinch came back almost starved to death and died before the law had a chance to take its course.

Hinch leaves a sister residing at South Slough. brass electric fixtures and sold them to the junk dealer. They needed a better principle of living not a better place to live.

"Many people right here in Marshfield are more interested in sewer systems than in the salvation of souls. I tell you that if you would put out the effort in bringing in the reign of Jesus Christ into your beautiful city, you would have a city like the one that was set on a hill and it could not be hid. It would bring people here faster than a railroad would bring them." (Applause.)

At the close of the sermon, Mr. Lyon gave out some striking teachings with reference to the cause of Judas' betrayal. He said that many think he did it because he was angry. Others lay it to covetousness. But Mr. Lyon believed that Judas betrayed Christ because this would bring Jesus to a point of committal before his enemies and in that event Christ would necessarily be obliged to set up his reign and finally Judas himself would then come in for an important official position in the new reign.

"Judas betrayed Christ because he did not know the power of Christ's love," said Mr. Lyon in conclusion. "This is just the reason why men today reject Him." The chorus then sang "Don't Reject Him," and three came forward taking a stand for Christ.

NOTES. The men's meeting to-morrow gives evidence of awakening unusual interest. The Lincoln (Neb.) State Journal said of this address of Mr. Lyon that it created the most profound impression of any lecture delivered in that city in years.

The Junior Chorus consisting of boys and girls will sing at the Tabernacle this evening. All boys and girls are invited to join the chorus.

PERRY IS SET FREE

City Marshal at Coalinga Wires Sheriff to Release Him Immediately.

W. B. Perry, who was arrested on a telegram from Coalinga, Cal., where he formerly conducted a newspaper and who was out on a bond of $400 given in the county court, has been entirely released. The city marshal of Coalinga wired Sheriff Gage to release Perry immediately until further investigation. Mr. Perry, who has been in Marshfield for the past day or two, since he gave bond at Coquille, was notified to-day by the Sheriff that he was entirely free.

Mr. Perry stated that he wired his attorney at Coalinga to look into the case and see what was the matter and that the attorney wired back that there was nothing to the case, the prosecuting attorney not having been even consulted by the marshal. Mr. Perry says that he cannot understand it unless it was a piece of spite work and that he has instructed his attorney to ascertain what grounds he has for redress with a view of securing damages. Mr. Perry went to Bandon this afternoon to visit his brother, owner of the Perry veneer factory at that place.
