agan, who is to be married. It was a recipe shower and each guest was expected to bring her favorite recipe. The hostess presented Miss Flanagan with a recipe book in which the recipes were inscribed and signed by each guest. The guests brought their sewing and after spending the afternoon enjoyed refreshments. The invited guests were Mrs. Thomas Barry of Empire, Mrs. C. F. McCollum, the Misses Sheridan of Roseburg, Mrs. I. S. Smith, Mrs. C. S. Winsor, Mrs. G. W. Rennie, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, Mrs. L. J. Simpson and Miss Anne Flanagan.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish Lutheran Church held its monthly meeting at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. An edifying program was carried out and reports from committees were submitted. Mesdames Victor Rudness and Victor Oren served the refreshments to the full attendance present. The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in October.

A jolly party of young folk aided Miss Marie Wheeler celebrate her fourteenth birthday yesterday. It was in the nature of a launch party and included a picnic at the Sand Hills. The weather was delightful and a more pleasant event has seldom been enjoyed. Among those in the party were Mrs. Mauzey, Mabel Mauzey, Emma Bear, Hattie Wheeler, Marie Wheeler, Eva Hansen, George Hansen, Deva Wheeler, Frances Lang, Dale Mauzey, Alice Mauzey, Edgar Mauzey.

Several socially prominent people are expected on the Bay shortly from San Francisco who will visit Mr. and Mrs. Simpson at North Bend and Chove Acres. During Mr. and Mrs. Pike's stay, a number of pleasant affairs are being planned.

One of the pleasant auto trips of the season was enjoyed last Sunday by a double quartette of Marshfieldites. Judge Coke and wife and W. T. Merchant and wife in Judge Coke's auto, and Dr. B. E. Schoonmaker and wife and Tom Harvey and wife in the Schoonmaker car. They went from Marshfield to Dora via Sumner, thence to Coquille and Myrtle Point, returning home about 10 P. M., tired but happy as a result of their day's outing.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Pike of San Francisco, who are visiting Mayor and Mrs. Simpson of North Bend, a delightful dinner was given them on the 4th inst. The Old Town house was beautifully decorated for the affair. A wealth of flowers from Shore Acres transformed the beautiful Simpson home into a veritable bower. Those enjoying Mrs. Simpson's hospitality with the recipients were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith and Mr. Roach.

Mrs. J. T. McCormac gave a card party Tuesday afternoon at her home. The guests played bridge after which refreshments were served. The first prize was won by Mrs. Eugene O'Connell and the second prize by Mrs. J. V. Smeaton. The guests included Mesdames Eugene O'Connell, William Ford, I. S. Kaufman, A. T. Haines, J. V. Smeaton, E. Mings, Henry Sengstacken, Frances Hazard, Colby Perry, L. H. Noble, P. M. Wilbur and M. C. Maloney.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Russell of North Bend were tendered a farewell reception Tuesday evening by the members of the North Bend Methodist Church. The affair was held in the church parlors. Mr. Russell and his wife are leaving for Seattle, where they will make their home. About one hundred persons were present and enjoyed a program of readings and musical numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Russell have been active in the church work at North Bend and have many friends there.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Houseworth, who have been visiting in the city, left this week for San Francisco. They sailed on the steamer Redondo. From San Francisco they will go to their home in Oklahoma. While in the city many social affairs were given in their honor. Dr. Houseworth is a twin brother of Dr. A. L. Houseworth of this city.

Mrs. E. S. Bargett and Mrs. J. A. Matson leave Tuesday for Medford, where they will visit Mrs. B. T. Vandecar. From Medford they will go to California and will be gone about two months.

Mrs. Jens Hansen and children of Ferndale, who have been spending a few weeks with relatives at Gardiner are expected home Monday.

John R. Smith and wife of North Bend were host and hostess at a delightful little Italian dinner at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pike of San Francisco. The Smith home was prettily decorated for the occasion. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pike of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Capt. Edgar Simpson and Mr. Roach.

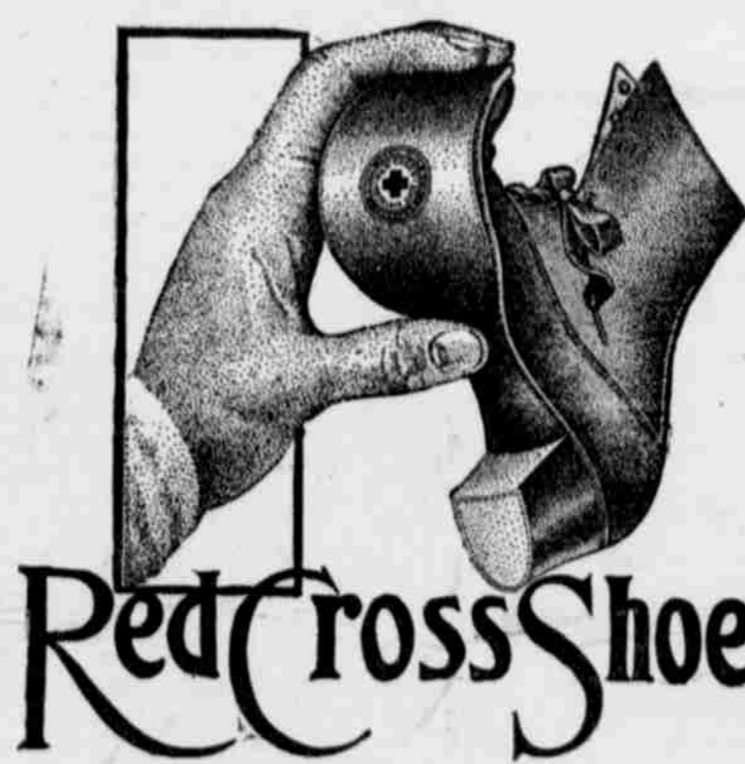

The wedding of Robert F. Gebhardt of North Bend and Miss Susan Marie Eickworth of Marshfield took place Wednesday morning at the Catholic Church in this city. Rev. Father Gallagher officiated. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by the members of the Altar Society. The bride was attended by Mrs. Charles Kaiser and wore an imported lingerie gown, hand embroidered and trimmed in lace. The bridal veil of white tulle was fastened with sweet peas. She carried a prayer book and bouquet of sweet peas and asparagus vine, fastened with a streamer of tulle. Charles Kaiser attended the groom as best man. The nuptials were witnessed only by near relatives of the contracting parties. Following the services at the church, a delicious breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Eickworth, in South Marshfield, for the wedding party.

The bride is well known in Marshfield and is especially admired for her talent as a pianiste. The groom formerly lived in California but came to Coos Bay just after the earthquake. He is a well known business man of North Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Gebhardt will go north on their wedding tour and expect to return to Coos Bay to make their home.
