Here on a Visit.—Elmer Rones, who formerly conducted a confectionery store at North Bend, is here on a visit. He is now located at Astoria.

Groom Arrives.—Harry Moffat of San Francisco, who is to be married to Miss Anne Flanagan Thursday evening, arrived in the city today. He is accompanied by his mother and several friends.

In Business.—John Bonebrake who left this place for Hillsboro, Or., not long ago has bought a partnership in a jewelry store which is conducted under the firm name of Tribby and Bonebrake.

Died at Hillsboro.—Mrs. J. W. Marsh died at Hillsboro, Ore., on Sept. 24. She was a native of Coos county and was born at Randolph on the Coquille River in 1855. She was the daughter of J. De Letts, a pioneer of this county.

Boat Nearly Ready.—The gasoline launch Coaster, which was recently launched at Max Timmerman's shipyard is being completed. Work on the boat will be rushed and it will be ready for use probably next week. The owner, Capt. Olson, will run the Coaster between Coos Bay and Curry county ports.

Gets Many Replies.—"Kill that want ad. of ours for an office girl," yelled Manager Schetter of the Western Union this morning. "I am being bothered by too many replies. Four answered last evening and a half dozen have been around this morning." This is but another illustration of what a Times want ad. will do.

Get New Teacher.—A. L. Applewhite of Corvallis, Oregon, has been secured by the Marshfield school board to take charge of the science department of the high school. Mr. Applewhite is very highly recommended, and besides the usual college training, he recently completed a year's post graduate course in the University of New York.

Writes From California.—Peter Clausen of Marshfield writes from California to friends in this city. He went to the southwest for the benefit of his health. He is at an old deserted mining camp in Arizona and says that while he is very weak he thinks his health is improving slightly. He is near Tehachapi, Cal.

Will Build House.—P. M. Tully will leave to-morrow for A. H. Powers' ranch on Cunningham Creek, where he will superintend the building of a $3,000 ranch house.

Dog Follows.—J. E. Graham went to Coquille yesterday to talk with Frank Garrison, the prisoner who is suspected of killing Roy Perkins. Graham has had charge of Garrison's five dogs since the man has been arrested and yesterday morning one of the dogs followed the train when Mr. Graham left. He did not notice the dog after leaving the Marshfield depot but on reaching Coquille learned that the animal had followed the train clear over there. The dog is now missing and Mr. Graham is trying to find it.

Given Cow.—Last Saturday evening, a crowd of Bunker Hill and Bay Park residents headed by Emil Gidmark and Andrew Nielsen surprised Ernest Grandell and family at their home there. They took with them a cow which was presented to the family to replace the one they had lost a few days previous, the critter having been shot. Bossy was gaily decorated and was led up to the front porch followed by the crowd. After the presentation, all enjoyed dancing and various diversions and refreshments were served.
