WANTED.—Experienced coal miners and timbermen. Apply Beaver Hill Coal Co.

FOR SALE.—A good paying office business at a sacrifice. Address Times office.

Trout Jumping.—The trout are jumping in the upper waters of North Coos River and there should be some good fly fishing there, so the Allegany people report.

To Build Home.—R. A. Church of Coos River has let the contract for a fine eight-room bungalow to be erected on Balnes street, just south of Tom Blain's residence. Mr. Fairchild has the contract and expects to begin work next week.

Sells Business.—R. E. Pluegor has disposed of his repair business to F. H. Virtue, who will continue it. Mr. Pluegor expects to leave shortly for Portland, where he expects to spend the winter.

Osprey Here.—The gasoline schooner Osprey is here on Coos River. She brought forty tierces of salmon from Wedderburn and will return to Rogue River.

Change Services.—In order to allow the congregation to join in the union services in Marshfield Sunday, Rev. M. H. Staines of the Coos River United Brethren Church has announced that no morning services will be held there Sunday. Christian Endeavor services will be held in the evening as usual.

Starting New Camp.—Clarence Gould is starting a new logging camp at Allegany back of the Price place. The men are falling timber and the camp will open soon to take out logs. Last night a big scraper was taken up on the Alert to be used at the camp. George L. Gould, a brother of Clarence Gould, came to the city to-day to look after some new machinery which was shipped in here on the Breakwater.

Powers Indicted.—A. H. Powers, of the Smith-Powers Logging Company, who returned from Coquille to-day, says that the Grand Jury has indicted him. "They have me indicted for killing fish," said Mr. Powers, "and I never caught a fish in my life." The charge is that Mr. Powers killed fish when using dynamite in blowing up piling. There is a question involved as to whether Mr. Powers' federal license for using dynamite is sufficient without a local license.

Returns Home.—Hugh McLain returned to-day via Roseburg from Portland and other northern points. He reports that a heavy rain made traveling difficult on the east side of the Coast Range. He is highly pleased with the prospects of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for State Railroad Commissioner. Many of his Republican friends are planning to give him a boost by writing in his name for Railroad Commissioner on their ticket. This they can do, it is explained, without hurting their candidate, as there is only one man running for the Republican nomination and who is certain of the nomination.

STR. ALERT will make last EXCURSION to the LIFE SAVING STATION next TUESDAY, SEPT. 27th. People should take advantage of this splendid opportunity to visit the beach. Bring along your lunch basket. FARE only 50c. round trip. Leave Allegany 6 A. M., Marshfield 9, North Bend 9.20, and return at 3 P. M.

ARRANGE FOR FOOT BALL

Those Interested Hold Meeting and Elect Officers For Local Team.

Those who are interested in football held a meeting last night and started an organization for this season. They expect to form a strong team to represent Marshfield and play with the teams which may be formed in the other cities of the county. The following officers were elected: Captain, Ernest Harrington; manager, John Ferguson. Professor Hewitt and probably R. O. Graves will be the coaches. Some of those who played in the Marshfield team last year and who will likely play this year are: Harrington, Stutsman, Sydney and Chauncey Clark, Walter Jensen, Eric Bolt and Johnson. Others who were present at the meeting and who may take part on the team this year are Larson, Berry, Dodge and Del Hennessey.

LYNCHED ITALIANS.

Mab at Tampa, Florida, Breaks into Jail.
 (By Associated Press.)
 TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 22.—Officers are searching for clues of the identity of six men who composed an armed mob which forcibly took from the officers two Italians and lynched them. The officers believed it was a Black Hand plot, but another theory is that it is the outcome of the cigar-makers' strike here.
