than to kill by inches with a vicious life."

Lyon Nuggets.

"Whenever you interfere with a man's schemes for financial gain, look out for his opposition."

"All the great evils and vices of the day have somewhere a money root."

"The brutal Roman guards sitting by the cross of Christ gambling for his garments are typical of that large class to-day indifferent to salvation."

"To frivolous, superficial society people of Jerusalem Christ's crucifixion was a mere entertainment. The same class to-day have similar opinions of these meetings."

"The modern Pharisee is the man who boasts of his own goodness. Jesus said they were whitened sepulchres, without respectable, but within rotten."

"To be thankful you must be thoughtful. If you get the people of this city to consider honestly for a single day the great issues of the judgment hundreds would be seeking salvation."

"You say you are not afraid to die? Neither are the cattle."

"God never accepts drafted soldiers in his service, only volunteers."

"If the love of God does not awaken your gratitude and draw you to repentance, nothing will. If it is a sad thing to sin against light, it is infinitely sadder to sin against love."

"God will never ask you to do anything impossible. Every gift he offers is for your good."

"Some of you promised your loved ones when dying you would turn to Christ and accept Him. Pay your vows. Have you done it?"

BOY RUNS AWAY.

Roy Bunch of Loon Lake Disappears From His Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bunch of Loon Lake are anxious about their son, Roy Bunch, aged sixteen years, who ran away from home. The young man it has been learned went to Elkton and there taken an automobile, so it is thought that he probably reached the railroad and went to Portland or some other city. The parents not having heard from him are anxious about him.
