DRIFTING.

A boat lay moored to the lighthouse stair. The winds were soft and the waves sang low;

But while he was dreaming his sweet day dreams The ebbing tide ran fast and free.

'Tis ever thus from youth to age, When we idly dream and our boat goes free.

But he who dreams in the daylight hours Has a mine of wealth many cannot see.

BE SOMETHING.

THERE is a moral grandeur in the thought—"I have made myself." The world may wag their heads, and you may be denounced, but if you are conscious of that integrity of purpose which has always characterized you, and that you now stand on an eminence, placed there by your own rectitude of heart, you have nothing to fear.

NOT CANDIDATE SAYS CONRAD

DECLARES THAT HE REFUSED TO ENTER RACE FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR COUNTY CLERK IN PRIMARIES.

EDITOR COOS BAY TIMES: Owing to the action of Mr. W. J. Rust secretary of the Democratic County Central Committee, in requesting the Democratic voters of Coos county to vote for M. O. Hawkins for County Clerk at the primaries, I desire to briefly state my position, so far as my alleged candidacy is concerned.

Several days ago I was approached by a member of the Democratic County Central Committee, who urged me to consent to become a candidate for the nomination for County Clerk at the primaries, stating that there was no Democratic candidate in the field. At that time I stated I did not care for the nomination, was averse to running for any political office, and even if I secured the nomination I would be obliged to decline same, as my relations with Mr. Watson, the Republican candidate, were of a friendly nature and I would not care to oppose him in any way.

Mr. Rust's article of Sept. 23d is entirely uncalled for under the circumstances, and if he had taken the trouble to take the matter up with me before publishing same I could easily have disabused his mind of the idea that I had any desire to secure the nomination. It would have been only fair to me had he at least given me an opportunity to explain my position. Mr. Rust, apparently, feeling that the interests of his candidate were being jeopardized became too excited to reason the matter out sensibly and rushed off to print without first ascertaining the facts and giving me an opportunity to state my position.

Yours very truly, W. J. CONRAD.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 23.—The Republican State convention met yesterday and adopted a platform approving the administrations of President Taft and Governor Denoon. The tariff plank follows the lines laid down in the President's letter. Chairman McKinley, of the Republican Congressional committee, in his proceedings were harmonious. Speaker Cannon in a vigorous speech declared the time had come to keep Republican faith whether or not the ure might result.

The Best Shoes On the Market

That's the kind I handle.

There are cheaper shoes but not good shoes. Good shoes cost a little more when first bought but they more than make up for it in the long run by wear, appearance and comfort.

Poor shoes are dear at any price as I don't handle them. Years of experience in the leather business has enabled me to tell what a good shoe is. Consequently, I offer you shoes that are guaranteed by the maker and myself—shoes that if they prove defective in any way you can get a new pair or your money back.

I have just received a fine line of men's and boy's raincoats and hats that I can guarantee to be absolutely waterproof—the "Tower's Fishbrand."

And don't forget that I am still giving a quarter for each pair of men's or women's shoes brought here for new half soles and heels.
