The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church of North Bend met Thursday with Mrs. Henry Hoeck. They spent the afternoon sewing and enjoyed delicious refreshments which were served by the hostess. Those present were Mrs. C. A. McKellips, Mrs. H. J. Isaacs, Mrs. C. H. Ackerman, Mrs. Louis Balsinger, Mrs. F. W. Stevens, Mrs. C. A. Nollner, Mrs. M. Kibbler, Mrs. E. M. Everitt, Mrs. D. C. Vaughan, Mrs. Wm. Neilsen, Mrs. E. Woodhall, Mrs. Wm. Hoeck, Mrs. Geo. Mrs. Henry Sengstacken gave a big picnic to-day at Cooston. The entertainment is in honor of Mrs. T. R. Sheridan of Roseburg, who is visiting in the city. The guests numbered about twenty-five ladies. The party went in a gasoline boat to Cooston where the day was spent and a picnic dinner served.

Mrs. H. G. Korn of North Bend gave a tea party last Saturday afternoon. It was a celebration of the sixth birthday of Master Harry Korn. Those in attendance were Catherine Wernlich, Tommy and Lora Scott, Nelva-Murr and Hobart and Harold McDaniel.

Last Friday evening the largest reception of the season was given in the First M. E. Church of North Bend by the pastor, Rev. R. H. Pierson, as a farewell to his many friends not only in the church but throughout the entire community. There were over 200 in attendance and he was assisted in receiving by the ladies of the church. The building was elaborately decorated with ferns, palms, huckleberries and flowers. During the evening a program was given including splendid selections by the Sumner orchestra. Miss Grace Williams and Miss Genevieve Smith rendered solos that were highly appreciated and encored. Little Marguerite Reynolds sang, "Play in Your Own Backyard" in an unusually sweet voice. Mrs. Chas. Worrell and Mrs. Will Simpson played a selection from "Trovatore" as a duet. Mrs. Elsie McKellips read "Choosing a Minister," after which Miss Guerna and Mrs. Fred Glazier played a highly artistic piano duet. Rev. R. H. Pierson having been requested to sing, rendered "Fathom's Deep," showing his remarkable musical talent as a soloist. In response to an encore he stated that he would prefer to talk a few minutes instead of singing again and expressed his views on the subject of "Pleasing the People." He said that ministers like the ancient prophets should be responsible to God and not worry about public opinion. If they try to please every one they would be like the man and boy with the donkey in Aesop's fables. He expressed a liking for the West and wished he could be pastor of a church for several years and build it up as the country develops. So little can be accomplished in one year and at best only a beginning can be made in such a short time. Mr. Nollner was then introduced and after a few words of appreciation presented Rev. Pierson a ring as a token of the regard and esteem of his many friends. He accepted it and sincerely thanked his friends not only for the ring but also for their help and kindness during the past year. A. W. Myers then gave a most appropriate impromptu address on Christian unity and brotherhood which was much appreciated. Mrs. Witte and Mr. McDaniels spoke briefly and concluded the program, after which cake and punch were served and a social time enjoyed by all. Mr. Pierson left with regrets and best wishes from all.

Col. William Grimes, Mrs. J. L. Houseworth, Mrs. Dorsey Kretzer, Mrs. William Grimes and Dennis Flynn of Oklahoma who has been visiting here, all went to Portland on the Breakwater to-day.

J. W. Hildenbrand Meets With An Unfortunate Accident.

J. W. Hildenbrand, of the Arago Soda Works, accidentally cut off the first finger of his left hand. He was chopping kindling and does not know exactly how it happened further than that he was holding the stick with the left hand and handling the hatchet with the right hand. The hatchet was very sharp and the finger cut entirely off, the hatchet cutting through the knuckle close to the hand. The surgeons cut out some more of the bone and the wound is dressed so that the fact that the finger is missing will not be so conspicuous.

NOTED COOK TO BE HERE SOON

W. C. BRADLEY WRITES CONCERNING VISIT OF MRS. D. E. KENNEDY TO COOS BAY CITIES NEXT WEEK.

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 19th. DEAR Mr. MALONEY: I wish you would tell all the ladies of Marshfield in your paper next Saturday night that Mrs. D. E. Kennedy, of the Coconut Products Company, of Portland, will give free lessons in plain and fancy cooking at the store of The Modern Company, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, at which time she will introduce the famous French cooking fat, KAOLA, pure coconut butter. And tell them further that it will pay every one of them to attend her lectures and demonstrations. Mrs. Kennedy is a good speaker and demonstrator and a better cook. She will give the ladies a taste (may be two tastes) of the finest biscuits, pastry and cakes. And her salads and dressings—say, if the ladies do not learn all about these delicacies, they will always hate themselves.

I shall be disappointed if the demonstration and the cooking lessons are not a big success, because I have stolen Mrs. Kennedy away from Medford and Baker City, Oregon, and Lewiston, Idaho, where she is very much wanted, in order to give Marshfield and North Bend ladies first show. She will be at the Coos Bay Gas & Electric Company's office in North Bend on Thursday and Friday. She has just finished a demonstration at Astoria, which was really an event—the lecture room being crowded for the entire three days.

I wish to say that The Modern Company will provide chairs so that all will be comfortable. Again tell all the ladies to attend with my compliments, yours truly, W. C. BRADLEY. P. S.—Mrs. Bradley says that Kaola is "oll right."
