We owe it to the community in can in every way possible that will, be to its advatnage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home indus-

President Joseph Smith of the at the morals of New York. In the course of his talk he said:

'Lake the rost cause of the South,' he said, "we have reconciled our selves to the edict of the highest court in the land, which has declared polygamy unlawful. A question of difference came up and it had to be settled. The South took to cannon and musketry. We took to the Supreme Court. When the decision was made against us we did just as the South-we obeyed, and will obey But, like the Southerners, we may still consider that our cause was just.

"Our religion is probably the most talked of and the most misunderstood of any in the world. When we practiced polygamy it was very much less extensive than that which prevalled in the rest of the country. Three pocent of our people had plural wives on the patriarchal plan, white seven ty-five per cent of the outsiders had plurat wives on the European plan."

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

The second installment of taxes for the year of 1909 is due and payable on or before October 3d, 1910, and if such installment is not paid by that time, penalty and interest will be added from April 4th, 1910.
