ACCEPTING THE VERDICT.

HERE is a disposition in some quarters not to accept the verdict of the primaries as a final decision of the people on the assembly.

The Evening Telegram in a timely and logical editorial on the subject gives utterance to the following excellent advice:

"Locally, the result was precisely the same as it was in the rest of the country. Insurgency here ruled the day. It is scarcely possible that there will be any more tampering with popular laws by any of the political parties.

"It would be a wise thing for the Republican party to now cordially accept the verdict and start forth from this point. There is much work ahead to be done. With the great normal majority favorable to the Republicans, it is that party which should do it.

KEEP THE SCHOOL WINDOWS OPEN.

WITH THE APPROACH of chilly weather comes the time when sensitive teachers close down the school room windows and keep out the fresh air and draughts.

Even in coldest weather it will not hurt the boys and girls to sit in rooms with windows open for a time at least, if they are warned to put on coat or cloak temporarily for protection.

Stale air, impure air, makes boys and girls dull and listless and prevents good school work; it makes a failure of the day's programme, and makes irritable dispositions and unhappy hours.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

Hold up your head! You were not made for failure, you were made for victory; go forward with a joyful confidence in that result sooner or later, and the sooner or later depends mainly upon yourself.—George Elliot.

HIS LAUNDRY.

The laundry that they got from me Was marked quite plainly C. R. B.

They sent it back: I wore that day A collar owned by R. A. J.

Again, I wear now, I confess, Pajamas meant for S. G. S.

The last just broke this heart of mine I can't wear things marked Angelina.—C. R. Barnes.

STORY OF THE DAY.

A lady undertook to explain to Douglas Jerrold the beauties of the five points of Calvinism. Jerrold listened patiently until the doctrine of election had been elucidated, when he exclaimed: "Well, if I had known that I was born to be damned, I'll be damned if I would have been born."

QUESTION OF THE DAY.

Did you ever notice that those fellows from Roseburg can tell at a glance just how many pints and quarts a suit case will hold?

THE HEL-HEL-HELLO GIRL.

It is easy enough to be pleasant When life goes on like a song, But the man worth while is the man who can smile

When the telephone rings and he answers it and says "Hello, and the operator says, "What number?" and he says, "The bell rang," and she says, "No, it didn't."

THE QUIET OBSERVER SAYS:

"Love starts a family; it takes cash to keep it going."

W. J. CONRAD SAYS:

"It seems as if women would rather be married than happy."

WELL KNOWN SAYINGS OF UNKNOWN MEN.

D. Y. STAFFORD—"It looks like rain."

CHARLIE HUNTER—"The best nickel cigar I ever smoked."

WILL EKBLAD—"Don't shave my neck."

JACK FLANAGAN—"Plain water, please."

FRANK HAGUE—"Go to sleep; it ain't a burglar."

JACK CARTER—"Shine 'em up good, Jim."

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

We wish, with the vast majority of our fellows, that the political seasons were just three times as far apart as they are. Six years is often enough for the infliction.

T. R. has made his attitude and course very plain, as might have been expected. The people are never as a loss to understand him, nor unwilling to endorse and believe him; a state of affairs that does not attach to any other single individual in the public eye.

It takes a rain of several days duration to purify the air down this way after the summer pall of forest fire smoke and to make the sunshine more gloriously brilliant, if that is possible.

According to the St. Joseph Gazette, people are not dying fast enough in that city to suit the undertakers. Perhaps you can figure out whether this is a boost for the city or a knock on the doctors.
