

CONTESTS HAVE BEEN STARTED FORECLOSURE SUITS FILED

Homesteaders in the Sand Hills Must Fight For Their Places.

Contests have been filed against several of the homesteaders in the sand hills. So far those who are contested are C. E. Nicholson and R. C. Cordes. It is believed that Eugene Robinson and Charles Stauff also must fight contests of the same kind. They are out of the city but notification of some kind from the government is awaiting them, so it is thought that they are to be affected in the same way.

Mr. Nicholson, together with the other homesteaders, made application for final entry. The recommendation for a patent to the land has not yet been made by the government. It is held back because of the contests. As Mr. Nicholson understands it the contest is made by the forestry department. The land in the sand hills was formerly open to homestead and a number of Coos Bay people located there. After the homesteaders took up a portion of the land the rest was all thrown back into the forest reserve. It is a part of the Umpqua forest reserve and some of the land is in a military reserve. In the case of Mr. Nicholson it is charged in the contest that he did not make residence properly on the place. In the Cordes case it is charged that he attempted to homestead on what was military reserve and that he had no business there, and it is also charged that he did not make residence there properly and that he did not sufficiently cultivate the land.

The cases will be heard before the local land commissioner. The homesteaders have 30 days in which to file their answer and after the trial of the case before the commissioner the homesteaders can appeal if the decision is against them. Mr. Nicholson says that he intends to take up his case to Washington before he will give up. With his wife he made residence on the place and spent a good deal of money there, and he says that while the homestead is really not worth taking, he is going to Washington that he has spent so much time and money on it that he will carry it to the high authorities before giving up.

Dr. Horsfall also had a homestead there. He made his affidavit some time ago and has applied for his patent, but as yet it has not been granted. However, he has not received any notice of contest yet so it is probable that he is not affected as Nicholson and the others.

The matter of cultivation of the land has been a rather difficult one for the homesteaders. The land is nothing but sand and the only thing that it is really good for is cranberries. There are good cranberry marshes on several of the homesteads but to develop these it would require a large outlay of money. The homesteaders did not want to spend so much on the cranberry proposition until they were certain that they would get title to the land.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed by a Simple Wash.

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in Eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of Eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wass for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25 cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.

F. B. Waite Brings Action Against Major Kinney to Clear Property.

F. B. Waite, through his attorneys, C. R. Peck and John D. Goss, has started foreclosure suits against L. D. Kinney. There are four suits and the total amount involved is about $180,000. The suits are filed in the circuit court and it is expected that they will be taken up at the December equity term of court.

Besides Major Kinney, many others are made defendants in the suits. The property being handled as it was by Major Kinney, many persons have to be brought into the suit. Every one who had any claims or judgment against any of the property and those who held contracts for the purchase of the property are all made defendants. Several hundred individuals and companies are named as defendants. In one case there are about one hundred defendants and in the other cases even a greater number.

The foreclosure grows out of the real estate deals between Waite and Kinney. Waite sold out his equity to Kinney and took as security mortgages on certain of the property. This was in 1906 and the mortgages have not been paid and interest has accumulated. In the meantime some of the property was sold under contract and claims and judgments were created against it which accounts for the large number of defendants.

The property involved in the foreclosures is all of plat E, all of plat F, most of Boulevard park, a large part of plat C and plat B and some acreage which has not been platted.

SAVE MONEY ON YOUR READING

Times' Clubbing Offer Taken Advantage of by Many Coos County People.

A large number of Times subscribers are taking advantage of or are planning to take advantage of the "Times Clubbing Offer," which affords a very substantial saving on their expense for newspaper reading. This special clubbing rate will be good for only a few months.

Nearly all of the newspapers, fruit papers, etc., are now on a cash in advance basis in order to comply with the new regulations of the postoffice department which practically eliminates credit to newspaper and magazine readers. Consequently the special terms which The Times has been able to secure with the most desirable publications for residents of Coos county are proving a means of a considerable saving, which should not be overlooked.

If Times subscribers will carefully peruse the special clubbing offer which will be published from time to time in The Times, they will find an opportunity to save a few dollars on their year's reading.

If you are already a subscriber to any of the papers named in this clubbing list, The Times can have your subscription renewed at the reduced rate and you will also make a considerable saving by paying for The Daily Times in advance.

It is urged that all who wish to take advantage of this special offer should make arrangements promptly as some of the offers are liable to be withdrawn at almost any time.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength in building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PENNANTS ARE CLINCHED.

The Philadelphia Athletics have clinched the American league pennant for this year and soon will undertake to contest for the world's championship with the Chicago Nationals. The Athletics won the American league flag in 1905 but lost the world's championship to New York. Of that old team, Connie Mack has only three members left, Davis, first baseman, and Plank and Bender, pitchers, so the wildest of managers has practically a team of youngsters to match against Frank Chance's veterans of four years' standing.

St. Louis City will win the Western league pennant.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS.

O. A. C. Plays First Game This Year on October 15.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 4.—With a new coach, a new captain, new rules to play under, and practically a new team, the football season at the Oregon Agricultural college, just opened, bids fair to present some pretty problems for solution. G. H. Schildmiller, a Dartmouth man with an All-American reputation as an end, is the new head coach, and it is expected that he will repeat here his success of last season with the University of Maine team.

One of his difficulties at the outset is the fact that the captain-elect, E. W. Wallace, of Independence, has gone to Yale this year, and thus the team will be deprived of his experienced leadership. His place has just been filled by Bird N. Hawley, of Star, a senior student who was guard of the first team last year, and for two seasons before that did excellent work on the second team in pounding the regulars into shape. James Evenden, of Warrenton, last year's captain, is another of the old men who will not return this year, a serious loss to the line.

The first game scheduled is that with the alumni October 15 at Corvallis. The game for October 22 has not yet been settled, but Corvallis will see the game with Washington State college October 29, and that with Whitman college November 5. Decision as to playing the Oregon university team in Portland or in Corvallis has not yet been made, though the date has been set for November 12. The season will close November 24 with the game between O. A. C. and the University of Washington at Seattle.
