Keep our customers cheered up. We never could figure out why people say, "Mad as a Hatter." Anyhow we don't believe any of our customers ever saw us mad. None of our clerks are mad either

Maybe it's because we sell these popular brands of Clothing and Outfitting Goods. They never cause any grouches.. And because every man who comes into our store gets courteous treatment and a square deal.

So no one has occasion to get "huffy" or "sore."

Everybody on both sides of the counter is always in good humor. If anything bought here isn't as good as it ought to be, let us know, so we can make it right. We can save you money on

A Hat, a Pair of Shoes or a Suit of Clothes.

ROSE WILL BEGIN CAMPAIGN.

Prohibition Losing Ground, Says Milwaukee ex-Mayor.
David S. Rose, ex-mayor of Milwaukee, arrived in Portland yesterday morning to begin his campaign of speaking in the state on behalf of the Greater Oregonian Home-Rule association, says the Portland Oregonian. For nearly two years Mr. Rose has been delivering lectures and addresses on temperance as against prohibition. He has spoken in all parts of the United States where the liquor question was an issue and will deliver 25 addresses in Oregon.

"I have spoken in 149 communities where the liquor question was before the people," said Mr. Rose "and only four out of that number voted dry. They were South Farmington and Plymouth, Mass., Davenport, Wash., and Lincoln, Neb. That alone speaks for the sentiment of the public against prohibition.

"Prohibition became effective in Alabama January 1, 1909, and on November 29 of the same year constitutional prohibition was defeated by an overwhelming majority of 27,000 votes. Besides that, Emmett O'Neill, who led the fight, was nominated for Governor.

"Georgia has tried prohibition three years, and Hoke Smith, nominated for governor, who signed the bill, announces that it has been such a failure that he will gladly sanction its repeal, which has been assured by 115 out of 185 members of the house, and 32 out of 44 members of the state senate.

"We won back Worcester, Mass., which had been pointed to with pride by the prohibitionists as a model prohibition city, and also New Bedford, another supposed stronghold of the prohibitionists. And so the campaign has gone on in all parts of the country. The tide is flowing back, experience has been a good teacher, and it will not be long until this agitation will be replaced with a campaign of education on temperance."
