PORTUGAL IS NOW A REPUBLIC; THEOPHILE BARGA, PRESIDENT

Royal Family Has Fled and Revolution Seems to Be Accomplished.

VIOLENCE BELIEVED TO BE AT AN END

Radicals Parade Streets in a Demonstration But Are Dispersed.

BARGA PRESIDENT.

(By Associated Press.) Berlin, Oct. 6.—The foreign office today received a telegram signed "Theophile Barga, provisional president of Portugal," announcing the formation of a provisional government, the proclamation of a republic and guaranteeing public security. Identical notes have been sent by Barga to all the powers.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

MADRID, Thursday, Oct. 6.—The struggle between the revolutionists and the loyalists at Lisbon continues today. Advances from the Portuguese capital, the authenticity of which can be safely assured, are meagre. Dispatches convey the impression that the revolutionists are in complete control and that the populace has accepted the republic as accomplished. It must be born in mind, however, that the revolutionists are in complete control of the telegraph and cable offices and are able to dictate what they wish of the present situation shall be known in the outside world.

One report from Vigo declared that the troops who were faithful to the king still held the important points and that continued fighting during the night is expected. It was admitted, however, that the republicans had got the upper hand after thirty hours of fighting. A dispatch said a moderate estimate of the loss on both sides was 200 dead and 450 wounded. The city is but slightly damaged by the bombardment. The republic was proclaimed amid frantic enthusiasm.

REPORTED QUIET. Word to That Effect Is Sent to Consul at Liverpool.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) LIVERPOOL, Oct. 6.—The Portuguese consul received a cablegram dated at Lisbon and timed noon, stating that all was quiet at the capital.

KING IN HIDING. Has Fled From the Capital to the Castle at Cibra.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) LONDON, Oct. 6.—A news agency dispatch from Gibraltar says a wireless from a British warship off Lisbon says King Manuel is at Cibra, seventeen miles from Lisbon, and that the Queen Mother, Amelias, is aboard the royal yacht.

FIGHTING OVER. Believed That Revolution Has Been Accomplished.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Sir F. H. Villiers, British minister at Lisbon, telegraphed the foreign office today that the republican revolution had apparently been accomplished and that there seemed no reason for further violence.

ON WAY TO ENGLAND. Queen Mother Said to Be Seeking Refuge There.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) LISBON, Oct. 6.—It is reported today that the royal family fled from the capital at the outbreak of the revolution and is on board the imperial yacht, Queen Amelias, which is on the way to the English coast.

RADICALS CELEBRATE. BARCELONA, Spain, Oct. 6.—Numerous bands of Spanish radicals paraded the streets today until the police dispersed them.

CHANCE TO BE FOREST RANGER

Government Will Hold Examinations For Those Wanting to Enter Service.

The civil service commission will hold an examination for assistant forest ranger on October 24 and 25. The U. S. department of agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1911. Assistant forest rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1100 per annum.

Forest rangers must be, when practically, citizens of the state or territory in which the national forest on which they are to be appointed is situated. In the states in which no examinations are to be held there is still a sufficient list of eligibles to make the holding of another examination unnecessary.

The requirements and duties of forest rangers are thus described in "The Use Book," which contains the regulations and instructions for the use of the national forests:

"A ranger of any grade must be thoroughly sound and able-bodied, capable of enduring hardships and performing severe labor under trying conditions. He must be able to take care of himself and his horses in regions remote from settlement and supplies. He must be able to build trails and cabins, ride, pack, and deal tactfully with all classes of people. He must know something of land surveying, estimating and scaling timber, logging, land laws, mining and the livestock business. On some forests the ranger must be a specialist in one or more of these lines of work.

"The examination of applicants is along the practical lines indicated above, and actual demonstration, by performance, is required. Invalids seeking light out-of-door employment need not apply. Experience, not book education, is sought, although ability to make simple maps and write intelligent reports upon forest business is essential.

"Rangers execute the work of the national forests under the direction of supervisors. Their duties include patrol to prevent fire and trespass; estimating, surveying, and marking timber, the supervision of outings, and similar work. They issue minor permits, build cabins and trails, oversee grazing business, investigate claims, report on applications, and report upon and arrest for violation of forest laws and regulations.

The examination will consist of questions regarding the use of the forest, supplemented by a field test to show the applicant's fitness to do the actual work of a ranger.

PROMINENT WOMAN HUNTER SHOT

Mrs. Swan Samson, Well Known at Tacoma, Accidentally Killed While on a Deer Hunt With Her Husband.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Swan Samson, one of the best known women hunters in this part of the country, was accidentally and fatally shot yesterday while hunting deer at Silver lake, twenty-five miles south of Tacoma. She was hunting with her husband and Peter Peterson.

Mrs. Samson was in a boat on the lake while her husband and Peterson were on shore starting a buck. Suddenly a shot rang out and the husband saw his wife fall backwards into the boat. The husband swam to the boat and brought it ashore. Mrs. Samson was removed to a house and physicians were summoned from Tacoma, but they could do nothing to save her life. The bullet had hit a hard substance and been deflected, striking Mrs. Samson. The intestines were cut in seven places.

HAS SUED FOR BIG DAMAGES

T. C. Foster Starts Action Against Local Gas and Electric Company.

T. C. Foster has started suit in the federal court at Portland for $15,000 damages against the Coos Bay Gas & Electric company for personal injuries. In regard to the suit the Oregonian says:

Charging that the Coos Bay Gas & Electric company was negligent in not supplying him with the proper tools for the performance of the work of erecting telephone poles, and that W. S. Harrington was an inexperienced and incompetent foreman, T. C. Foster yesterday began a suit in the United States court for damages. Foster was injured while aiding in raising a pole July 13, 1908. He asks for damages in the sum of $15,000.

NEW DECISION ON DIVORCES

New York Supreme Court Says Nevada Separations Are Not Good.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—In an important state supreme court decision just announced here it is ruled that a woman who goes to Nevada for the purpose of obtaining a divorce and then returns to New York state is still a wife. It is declared that New York courts may arrive at this conclusion from any evidence which shows that the divorce proceedings were instituted as soon as she had remained in Nevada long enough to satisfy the authorities there that she had obtained residence. The Reno divorce court rule is void for want of jurisdiction.

FOR BUSINESS BOULEVARD

Project to Make Bennett Avenue Commercial Highway Across City.

At a little dinner party given in the grill room of the Chandler hotel last evening a project was launched for a business boulevard in Marshfield that might be termed a twin project of Mayor Straw's park boulevard plan.

The plan as outlined by the projectors is to make Bennett avenue the basis of a business street 100 feet wide, that will extend from Broadway to the city limits. To perfect such a commercial highway it is proposed to add forty feet additional to Bennett avenue where it runs from Fourth street to Seventh street, which will be taken from the abutting property, and continue it across Mill Slough to Broadway.

Much of the property that will be necessary to the consummation of the plan is now owned by Mr. C. A. Smith, who was present, and without committing himself definitely to the project expressed approval of the general plan. The matter will be taken up with him and other property owners by a committee appointed by Mayor Straw and headed by J. H. Flanagan.

The plan as presented was elaborately worked out with maps and diagrams showing the advantages that would accrue to the entire business district by the establishment of a main artery of traffic, modeled after the idea of Market street in San Francisco, and which would establish a means of easy access to what must eventually be the large residential section of the city that is to be. The idea advanced was that such a street would prove beneficial to established streets in being a feeder for them from the principal residence section of the city. The plan was cordially endorsed by Mayor Straw and a number of other business men present.

The matter is to be thoroughly investigated by the committee appointed by Mayor Straw and later a report submitted.

Those present last evening were: A. Meroen, E. E. Straw, P. A. Sandberg, G. W. Kaufman, Claude Naber, J. H. Flanagan, C. A. Smith, I. S. Kaufman, A. H. Powers, M. C. Maloney, R. O. Graves and J. M. Blake.

"WETS" WIN IN ROSEBURG

Elect Five Out of the Six Councilmen to Be Chosen There.

2 YEARS' EXPERIENCE WORKS THE CHANGE.

Drys Are Routed as Result of a Change in Public Sentiment.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 6.—The "wet" element of Roseburg is jubilant over the result of the city election held here today, when five of the six "wet" candidates were elected members of the city council over the so-called "dry" champions by majorities ranging from 15 to 59 votes.

The strife of the election centered in the fourth ward, where Walter Hamilton, a local druggist, who was supported almost to a man by the "dry" voters, was defeated by Dr. A. F. Sether by a majority of 15 votes. In the first ward, S. E. Krohn,

Detective Earl Rogers Says Burns Is Not in Full Control.

NO INFORMATION IS GIVEN OUT

Regarding the Eight Men Suspected in Los Angeles Dynamite Plot.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—While the searching for the Times building dynamite conspirators is unhampered today by any undue publicity, there is a division of opinion between William J. Burns, detective, and Earl Rogers, attorney. In a statement yesterday Burns said he was in charge and today Earl Rogers declares Burns is not in charge of the conspiracy investigation. Burns replies that he declines to enter a controversy with Rogers as to who is in charge, stating merely that he represents the city, which is more important than representing some other incorporated body which includes only a portion of the people.

Following Mayor Alexander's statement that the reward offered for the apprehension of the plotters was too large, the Merchants & Manufacturers' association today reduced its reward from $50,000 to $15,000. From information today drawn from the police with great difficulty it was learned that at least eight men are suspected of being involved and the reward for their capture amounts in all to $145,000. Absolutely nothing concerning the present status of the man hunt was gained today.

Captain Flammer, chief of the Los Angeles detective bureau, this afternoon denied that there was any evidence so far tending to fasten guilt upon one or more of the suspects who are under arrest "on general principles."

manager of a local drugstore and a staunch supporter of the "wet" principles, defeated Clark L. Bargar by a majority of over 50 votes. Mr. Bargar's support was largely contributed by the "dry" voters, notwithstanding that he is supposed to be affiliated with the "wet" forces.

Krohn was strenuously opposed by a handful of the "drys" who contended that his business relations were such as to render him unfit for the office of councilman. The "wet" element accepted this inference as a personal slap and combined their forces in support of the offended candidate.

In the sixth ward, North Roseburg, John Mullen, the "dry" candidate, defeated his "wet" opponent, H. Guest, a local baker, by 10 votes. Mullen has served as councilman during the past 12 months, and resides in a decidedly "dry" territory. In the second, third and fifth wards the so-called "wet" candidates were elected almost without opposition. They were: Dr. George E. Houck, Fred Chapman, druggist, and John Nachter.

Out of the 12 councilmen at present representing the city, 10 are said to be closely affiliated with the "wet" element.
