Official Paper of Coos County.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

JUST FACTS.

Do you know that you can judge a town's mode of living and its prosperity and the nature of its citizenship by the advertising columns of the local paper? You can! Show me a newspaper that contains a liberal supply of the local merchants' advertisements and I'll show you a town back of that paper that is a live, healthy, growing town—where conditions exist that make it a desirable place for the stranger and homeseeker to locate—where the very prosperity of the community literally spreads out before your eyes! But don't patronize a paper merely for patriotic reasons—put your ads in to get results for yourself—make your ads attractive and readable—make them have a spirit of "welcome" and "honest dealing" to your prospective customer. Then Deliver the Goods.

"WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR?"

Quoting a once famous politician who sought to justify certain peccadillo, and chiefly that of bold graft within his party, (but in an entirely different spirit), we beg to ask the republicans of Coos Bay, who are presumed to be committed to the party organization and to the good faith that must bolster that desirable end, "what are we here for?"

Are we to serve that purpose and stand together for the party and its choice of candidates and help recall the party into tangible and recognizable shape, restoring its prestige? Or are we to travel in a myriad of directions, upon purely personal errands and small individual interests, confessing ourselves republicans in name only, borrowing the title to spare ourselves the necessity of using partisan designations that we are not used to? It is about time we were asking this pointed question of our consciences and answering it manfully, or, as manfully, casting the old name aside to be used only on election day.

As it stands today, republicanism here is a mere name. Its strength and power has been frittered and faded to a shadow, and the shell is practically empty of substance and faith and honest purpose. Let us get together to build up and revive the organization and place it where the major wants and policies and principles may be perpetuated and maintained and used.

There is a brief campaign ahead of us and it is our duty as republicans to participate. The Times suggests that a committee of the newly elected central committeemen for the Marshfield precincts get together and issue a call for the organization of a republican club in this city that will become the nucleus of party organization and party enthusiasm for Coos county.

Old differences have been obliterated in the general and cordial acceptance of the results of the primaries. We have a good ticket composed of good men and we should support it and rally to the preservation of the principles and perpetuation of the party, and for the sake of holding to the things and people that belong to us and asserting the rights and powers and prestige yet within our hands. We must stand by these candidates, since anything else will be to annihilate the party and scatter it irrevocably. The man with true republican sympathies and an honest desire to save the situation will know what to do at this juncture. His way has been marked out for him and it is the only way left. Let us have a republican club.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

Truth, whether in or out of fashion, is the measure of knowledge, and the business of the understanding; whatsoever is besides that, however authorized by consent, is nothing but ignorance, or something worse.—Locke.

SOME BRIGHT DAY.

Joy is coming right along Some bright day; Hints of flowers and of song Some bright day. And that mocking bird I see Where the blossoms used to be; He'll be singing sweet to me Some bright day.

Winter will not seem so drear Some bright day; There'll be sweetness in the air Some bright day. From the windows of the blue All the Promised Land you'll view; Angels waving hands to you Some bright day!

Hasten o'er the meadows sweet, Oh, bright day! Scatter violets at Love's feet, Kind, bright day! Lead us where Love's sweethearts stray, To the red deeps of the May, Kind, bright day! —Frank L. Stanton.

Only one life to live, and we're living it now! Shoo-fly, imaginary shadows!

The eastern man who says eating is a habit is mistaken. Eating is hereditary.

Patience is a virtue that many Coos Bay men are willing to recommend to their creditors.

The scientists say that kissing is a menace, but no Coos Bay man considers it dangerous if he can succeed in getting away without being caught.

An eastern exchange says: "Mr. Shakespeare's autograph is worth $100,000." Nevertheless, I would rather have Joe Bennett's on a check calling for that amount.

SHOULD ELECT JUDGE COKE.

County Clerk of Coos County Refutes Unfounded Reports.

I understand that the report has been circulated to the effect that Mr. B. F. Jones received more votes in Coos county than Judge Coke did. The official canvass of the ballots at the recent primary election showed that Mr. Jones received in Coos county 444 votes and that Judge Coke received $42. Judge Coke received more votes in Coos county than any other candidate for any state or district office. He received every republican vote but six in the combined North and South Marshfield precincts, and in Central Marshfield precinct he received the highest vote cast for any candidate or measure.

In addition to this, many democrats wrote Judge Coke's name upon their ballot, thus giving him the nomination of their party.

I have known Judge Coke intimately for many years and am an admirer of him for his honesty, fairness and ability, both as a judge and as a citizen.

At the coming election there are two circuit judges to be elected for the Second Judicial district, and under the law one must be a resident during his term of office in the section of the district "south of the Umpqua river and west of the Coast range of mountains." For this reason I believe every fair-minded voter will cast his vote for one only of the Douglas county candidates and that the other will be cast for Judge Coke, regardless of party affiliations.

JAMES WATSON, County Clerk of Coos County, Ore.

LITTLE TALKS ABOUT TOWN

A CRIST OF COOS BAY GOS-SIP GATHERED HERE AND THERE ABOUT THINGS OF INTEREST.

"The people want the advantages of railroads, and the advantages of the water highways of the world, and they have got to keep the watch the later," remarked a man yesterday. "Corporations can build public highways and the people are willing to help them in donations of rights of way and terminal facilities, and patronize them after built. But our rivers and oceans are a God-given heritage that should always remain free for all mankind, and every public-spirited citizen ought to take pride in preserving its water frontage on Coos Bay if it ever expects to become a world's commercial center."

A tobacco journal in a recent issue points out a trick in the grading of cigars, founded on the ignorance of smokers, which will no doubt surprise every man. A Smoker's who buys the fragrant Illusion. Of late years, says this authority, there has been such a craze for cigars of light color that the makers are at a loss how to dispel the illusion of maduros, colorados and claros with which they have indulged their patrons from the early days. As a matter of fact, there is no difference in any one brand of cigars, no matter whether the wrapper be light or dark. It is a notable fact that the Cubans, who prefer mild tobacco, avoid smoking light-colored cigars, just as we would avoid eating a green apple.

Most of us are very much like the rest of us. We are not particularly beautiful or clever; we are not inordinately rich or exceedingly poor; we are more fond Much of amusement than hard labor, and we are constantly coming short of standards and ideals which our obstinate consciences will not allow us to forget. We do much the same sort of thing at about the same hour of the day. There are a great many pranks and faddists abroad in the land, but the normal, average people are the rule and the freaks are the exception.

"If the growlers made the weather they wouldn't please themselves, so let us gently pass them up and lay them on the shelves."

The grumblers growl at April. And they grumble at July. There's too much rain in October And August is too dry.

"There were a few errors in the article in The Times concerning the street improvements that have been made in Marshfield," remarked in Marshfield. John Butler, the city recorder, today.

"The amounts given for this year's work were only the estimates and of course may vary slightly from the actual cost. In totalling them up, your reporter made it $1,000.04 more than it should have been. Then in reviewing the amount of street work that has been done here, it should have stated that the total amount of hard surface paving in the city is thirty-three blocks and the total amount of plank paving is one hundred fifty-two blocks. The Times article was not exactly clear on this point, not stating that the work done this year added to that done previous seasons made the total given."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is a potent internal remedy, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength in building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
