PHILADELPHIA GIVES CUBS AN AWFUL TROUNCING AGAIN TODAY

Chicago Loses On Home Grounds By Score of Twelve to Five.

REULBACH, MCINTYRE AND PFEISTER HIT

Coombs Only Allows Four Hits and Does Some Great Stirk Work.

Philadelphia—R H E 1 2 5 0 0 0 4 0 0—12 15 1

Chicago—R H E 1 2 0 0 0 0 2 0—5 4 4

By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20. — By a score of twelve to five, Philadelphia administered the most stinging defeat of the series to the Cubs here this afternoon.

Thousands of fans crowded the grounds, expecting to see Chance's men retrieve the honors lost in Philadelphia, but Chicago was in the air all the time.

The weather was bad, being cold with heavy skies. It was more like football weather than baseball weather.

Reulbach started in for Chicago but he lasted only two innings, when McIntyre was given a turn at it but he lasted only part of the third inning, allowing four scores, one of which was a home run by Murphy.

Pfeister then went on the slab but was pounded pretty vigorously.

In the third, Manager Chance was out of the game for protesting too much, he insisting that the ground rules restricted Murphy's home run to a two-bagger.

Coombs was the star again today. He not only held Chicago down to four hits but he did some good stirk work.

The game in detail:

First Inning.

Philadelphia—Strunk got a base on balls and went to second on Lord's sacrifice, the latter being out, Reulbach to Chance. Sheekard took Collins' fly. Strunk scored on Baker's single to center. Baker was put out fouling, Kling to Tinker.—One run.

Chicago — Sheekard walked. Schulte doubled into the center field crowd, Sheekard going to third. Sheekard scored on Hofman's sacrifice fly to Strunk. Schulte took third. Chance struck out, Zimmerman flew out to Strunk.—One run.

Second Inning.

Philadelphia—Davis got a base on balls. Murphy grounded out, Steinfield to Chance, Davis going to second. Barry doubled to left field, scoring Davis. Thomas lined to Schulte. Barry was held at second but scored when Coombs hit for two bases into the right field crowd. Strunk went out, Zimmerman to Chance.—Two runs.

Chicago — Steinfield popped to Barry. Tinker doubled down the right field foul line. Kling went out, Baker to Davis, Tinker taking third. Beaumont batted for Reulbach. Beaumont walked. Sheekard walked filling the bases. Tinker and Beaumont scored when Schulte hit for a two-bagger. Hofman fanned.—Two runs

Third Inning.

Philadelphia — McIntyre started pitching for Chicago. Sheekard caught Lord's long fly. Steinfield was barely able to check Collins' sharp hit which was a safe one. Collins scored when Schulte let Baker's single pass him. Baker made third on the error. Davis was hit by a pitched ball and took first. Murphy knocked a home run into the right field bleachers, Baker and Davis scoring ahead of him. Chicago protested that under the rules Murphy's hit should have been a two-bagger. Chance was ordered off the field for continuing to protest after it was disallowed. Pfeister replaced McIntyre to the box and Barry knocked the first ball he pitched for two bases. Barry scored when Thomas hit to Tinker and the latter threw badly to Archer. Thomas was doubled at second on Coombs' hit to Zimmerman, Zimmerman to Tinker to Archer.—Five runs.

Chicago—Archer went out, Baker to Davis. Lord caught Zimmerman's fly. Steinfield fanned.—No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Philadelphia—Strunk flied to Hofman. Lord singled to center. Collins forced Lord out at second, Pfeister to Zimmerman. Collins out, Kling to Tinker.—No runs.

Chicago—Tinker singled to right. A double play disposed of Tinker and Kling, Barry to Collins to Davis. Pfeister out, Baker to Davis.—No runs.

Fifth Inning.

Philadelphia—Baker was retired, Zimmerman to Archer. Davis hit safely to left. Murphy flew to Hofman. Barry forced Davis out at second, Tinker to Zimmerman.—No runs.

Chicago—Baker fumbled Sheekard's bunt and the latter was safe. Schulte fanned. Sheekard and Hofman were doubled, Murphy to Davis, Murphy having taken Hofman's fly, while Sheekard apparently thinking there were two out, kept on running.—No runs.

Sixth Inning.

Philadelphia—Thomas grounded out, Tinker to Archer. Coombs flew to Zimmerman. Strunk fanned.—No runs.

Chicago—Archer hit in front of the plate and was out, Thomas to Davis. Zimmerman fanned. Steinfield fouled to Baker.—No runs.

Seventh Inning.

Philadelphia—Zimmerman caught Lord's liner. Steinfield stopped Collins' hot grounder and threw the runner out at first. Steinfield fumbled Baker's grounder and the latter was safe. Davis smashed a single to right, Baker reaching second. Tinker fumbled Murphy's sharp grounder, filling the bases. Davis and Baker scored on Barry's double to left. Thomas walked. Bases full. Murphy and Barry scoring on Coombs' single over second. Strunk singled. Bases again full. Lord hit to Zimmerman who tossed him out at first.—Four runs.

Chicago — Tinker out, Baker to Davis. Kling was retired, Barry to Davis. Pfeister fanned.—No runs.

Eighth Inning.

Philadelphia—Schulte caught Collins' fly. Baker was retired via Zimmerman and Archer. Davis hit for two bases. Murphy was thrown out by Tinker.—No runs.

Chicago — Sheekard walked. Schulte flew to Murphy. Hofman hit a two-bagger. Archer fanned. Sheekard scored on a passed ball. The ball hit the railing and under the ground rules, Hofman also scored. Zimmerman flew to Murphy.—Two runs.

Ninth Inning.

Philadelphia — Barry fouled to Kling. Thomas out to Archer, unassisted. Coombs singled to center. Strunk was retired, Zimmerman to Archer.—No runs.

Chicago — Steinfield flew to Strunk. Tinker singled to left. Kling struck out. Tinker went to second. Needham batted for Pfeister and flew to Baker.—No runs.

Batting Order.

The batting order today was:

Philadelphia — Strunk, center; Lord, left; Collins, second; Baker, third; Davis, first; Murphy, right; Barry, short; Thomas, catcher; Coombs, pitcher.

Chicago—Sheekard, left; Schulte, right; Hofman, center; Chance, first; Zimmerman, second; Steinfield, third; Tinker, short; Kling, catcher; Reulbach or Cole, pitcher.

DAVID B. HILL IS STRICKEN TODAY

TO HOLD BIG RALLY HERE

Marshfield Republican Club will Begin Active Campaign For Party.

At a meeting of the Marshfield Republican Club last evening, the permanent organization of the club was effected and plans made to hold a big Republican rally here the Saturday night previous to the election. Besides this, plans were made for getting out the Republican vote in Marshfield and to lend such aid in securing a big party vote in the outlying precincts as possible.

The meeting was fairly well attended and was called to order by W. U. Douglas, the temporary secretary. The first business was the election of a permanent chairman, M. C. Maloney being chosen by a unanimous vote. J. N. Kendall was elected secretary also by acclamation. S. B. Cathcart was elected vice-president and W. U. Douglas treasurer.

Duncan Ferguson, T. T. Bennett, I. S. Smith, O. O. Lund and A. M. Ross were elected members of the executive committee by a ballot vote. Others voted on were C. B. Selby, Geo. N. Farrin and Aug. Frizeux.

Upon motion by R. O. Graves, seconded by Tom Bennett, it was decided to eliminate a membership fee, the only qualification required being one Republican vote. Some wanted a membership fee to raise funds for conducting the campaign but the majority decided that the best way to raise funds would be by subscription and collection, over $12 being contributed by those present last night.

Upon motion by Messrs. O. W. Briggs and R. O. Graves, the chairman was instructed to name a committee of two from each precinct to make a poll of the Republican voters and see that they get out to the polls on election day. This committee will be named later.

It was decided to have regular meetings of the club every Wednesday night. The by-laws reported by Messrs. Buckingham, Maloney and Reigard were adopted. The report of the membership committee showed a large number had signed the roll.

W. U. Douglas reported that arrangements were being made to hold a number of meetings throughout the county between now and election, various local speakers being secured.

POLITICS ARE GETTING WARM

More Interest Manifested In Interior Than Along Coast Says J. M. Upton.

J. M. Upton returned this morning on the Breakwater from a trip through the district in the interests of his candidacy. Mr. Upton reports much greater activity in political matters in the interior centers than is manifested on the coast. The Bowerman-West contest is the feature of the campaign, though much interest is displayed in other candidates. Hugh McLain, who has been touring with West, was seen in Portland Tuesday and he reports conditions very gratifying to him in Eastern Oregon, and he is promised a heavy vote in Multnomah county.

WATER FRONT FOR COOS BAY

J. N. Teal Urges Necessity of Securing Public Docks At Harbor.

J. N. Teal, one of the leading attorneys of Portland and who is well-known on Coos Bay where he has visited J. W. Bennett and other friends a number of times and who is greatly interested in the development of this harbor, is now urging that Coos Bay retain its waterfront for the benefit of the public. This statement is contained in a letter to C. R. Peck of the Port of Coos Bay Commission who wrote to Mr. Teal concerning Portland's campaign to secure public docks there.

The matter is of particular interest now because the bond ordinance which the Port of Coos Bay has referred to the people at the November election contains a provision that $50,000 shall be spent in securing the waterfront necessary for public docks, etc., here. The commission already has secured about 320 feet of waterfront north of the Standard Oil warehouse and is desirous of securing more while it still can be obtained at a reasonable price and thus provide for the future growth of shipping here.

In his letter, Mr. Teal says: "Without extending this letter, I desire to say that there is no subject of such vital importance to any water points, deep sea or inland, as the question of water terminals. Without them, the creation of channels will be of very little importance. I hope for the benefit of your community and the benefit of the state at large, that you will take up this matter and see that your future interests are protected as they should be as to public ownership of waterfront."

Tug Columbia and Schooner Omega In Critical Predicament On Bar.

ONE DISABLED GOING TO RELIEF OF OTHER

Calm Seas and Presence of Tug Gleaner Probably Prevented Double Disaster.

Fair weather and fairly calm seas at the critical moments last evening prevented what might have been a double disaster and resulted in the loss of the schooner Omega and the tug Columbia. Apparently, the ill-luck that has followed the Simpson Lumber Company's fleet in the past few years was overcome at the crucial moment and a more kindly fate lent a helping hand.

It started when the schooner Omega, Capt. Nyman, started to sail in over the bar. A fairly good wind was blowing and she was making good headway when suddenly she was becalmed on the bar. The tide was ebbing and anchors were thrown out, but they failed to hold and steadily drifted towards the South Spit.

Her distress was noted and word sent to North Bend and Capt. Pendergard on the tug Columbia hastened to her aid. As the Columbia was crossing out, she encountered a rough spell and in the tossing the hawser became entangled in her wheel completely disabling her. The bar again calmed and the Columbia rode safe for the time being at anchor.

Meanwhile the Omega had slowly drifted into the cove near the lighthouse where she was safe in smooth weather.

The tug Gleaner happened to be in the Bay from Gardiner and was hurriedly sent to the relief of the tug Columbia as no one knew the moment rough seas might again strike the helpless craft. She succeeded in getting to her before the bar became rough and towed her out beyond into deep water where she was safe.

Then the Gleaner towed in the Omega from the cove where she had found temporary safety.

The Columbia was able to come in under her own power this morning but she was considerably damaged as a result of the hawser getting into her wheel.
