Meet Tonight.—The meeting of the Marshfield Division of the Oregon Naval Reserve will be held this evening in the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Give Smoker.—The Marshfield Republican Club is arranging to give a smoker Wednesday evening. The details have not been completed but will be announced tomorrow.

Baby Dies.—Word has been received here of the death of the infant son, Edward, of Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Chapman, formerly of Marshfield, at San Francisco recently. The little one was only a few weeks old.

Meet Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet Tuesday evening. Several matters of importance are slated to come up and the session may be a lively one. It is expected that Councilman Hennessey will resume his seat in the council.

Ballot Not Long.—Some one started the report that the ballots for the November election would be six feet long. Jas Watson, county clerk, who was here yesterday said that they would be only a little over a foot and a half long so they will not be so cumbersome to vote and count as some thought.

Finds Relative.—Capt. J. A. O'Kelly has located Joseph LaCrique, the father of his late wife, after a search of several months. Mr. LaCrique is at the Soldiers' Home at Bath, N. Y.

Double Service.—Agent Miller of the local railway, stated today that the two-train-a-day service would be continued until November 15, at least and longer if business is good enough to justify it.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of John Nashburg, the Coos Bay pioneer who died Saturday, was held this afternoon from the Wilson Undertaking parlors, Sunset Lodge, No. 51, L. C. O. F., of which he was a member had charge.

Deal Not Closed.—Claude Nashburg who sometime ago obtained an option on 100 acres of tide flat owned by C. S. Winsor, L. F. Falkenstein and others has not closed the deal for its purchase yet. The option, it is understood, will expire this week.

Dredge Coming.—Engineer Leefer received word yesterday that the dredge Oregon had left Grays Harbor and should reach Coos Bay sometime today. Owing to the rough weather and fog, she may be delayed a little and not get in before tomorrow.

Expect Clarke.—Francis H. Clarke, president of the Coos Bay & Bole line, is expected here from Portland Wednesday. According to reports here today the developments in the project have been very favorable but these cannot be verified until Mr. Clarke arrives.

Fire Scare.—Last evening about 9 o'clock a spark from the stationary engine at the local railway shops fell on the roof of the car shops and in a few moments had a good sized blaze going. The fire alarm was turned in but the watchman and others succeeded in extinguishing it before much damage was done and before the department arrived.

Many Subscribe.—Many of The Times subscribers are taking advantage of The Times Clubbing offer whereby they secure their newspaper reading for the coming year at about two-thirds what it would otherwise cost. Beside the papers already included in this reduced rate, The Times is now able to offer for a short time The Portland Evening Telegram. The Daily Times and The Daily Telegram for one year will cost $8.25 and The Weekly Times and The Daily Telegram one year will cost $4.75.
