

WOMAN'S WORLD

Wm. Grimes, Mrs. J. R. Smith and Mrs. Eugene Crothwait. Invitations were sent to the following out of town people, Miss Helen Doble of Portland, Mrs. Helen Chandler-Tremaine of Bellingham, Mrs. Tom Minot of San Francisco, Mrs. Wm. Ford of San Francisco and Mrs. Ernest Pollexfen of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell have moved from their home in Kittyville into apartments in O'Connell building on Market avenue.

Mrs. J. Nelson of McPherson street North Bend, entertained Thursday in honor of Mrs. G. R. Gulovson and daughter, Ruth, who are visiting in Marshfield.

Those attending were: Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. C. G. Magnes, Mrs. Rudolph Johnson, Miss Emma Erickson, Miss Mamie Gulovson, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Mrs. G. R. Gulovson and Miss Ruth Gulovson.

Mrs. J. W. Mitchell returned this week from a few weeks' visit at Portland, The Dalles and Roseburg.

The Progress Club was entertained last Monday by Mrs. E. G. Flanagan at her home. A most interesting as well as educational program was carried out. Mrs. Flanagan read a paper on the Yellowstone Park, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken read another on the Mammoth Cave, and Mrs. I. Lando read one on Natural Bridges. Light refreshments were served. The club will meet next with Mrs. M. C. Horton.

The A. N. W. Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. T. Merchant but the attendance was not large owing to many of the members participating in the party given that afternoon by Mesdames Booth and Bennett. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Hyde has been elected treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. R. F. Gebhardt. The next meeting place of the club will be announced later.

The congregation of the Marshfield Presbyterian church enjoyed a Hallowe'en social at the church parlors Thursday evening. It was to have also been in the nature of a reception to a prospective new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Fawcett, but as he was unable to come this feature of it was dispensed with and a good old fashioned Hallowe'en celebration was enjoyed. The attendance was large.

Mrs. J. H. Flanagan will entertain the Bridge Club at her home next Wednesday.

Mrs. August Josephson entertained a number of friends last Wednesday. A delicious five-course dinner was served.

The Tuesday Night Whist Club was entertained last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons at their home in West Marshfield. Mrs. Wm. Grimes and Chas. Van Duyen won the prizes. C. F. McKnight was elected to membership. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Warwick.

Mrs. R. K. Booth and Mrs. G. A. Bennett were hostesses at one of the largest parties of the season at the G. A. Bennett home Thursday afternoon. In the home decorations, the yellow color scheme was carried out, greens and chrysanthemums being used effectively. At cards, Mrs. Morton Tower won first prize and Mrs. W. S. Turpen second. Delicious refreshments were served, the hostesses being assisted in serving by Misses Jessie Chase, Genevieve Sengstacken, Nellie Tower and Mamie Mahoney. Among those invited were:

Mrs. R. A. Wernich, Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, Mrs. F. A. Golden, Mrs. P. M. Wilbur, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. J. L. Kendall, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. J. M.

Smeaton, Mrs. R. M. Jennings, Mrs. P. A. Sandberg, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer and Mrs. Browning.

The Hallowe'en social spirit rather centers in the Promenade which the Sisters of Bethany will give at the Odd Fellows Hall next Monday evening. Besides the dance and musical program, a number of entertaining features have been arranged. The attendance promises to surpass the attendance at any similar event ever held on the Bay.

Miss Mary Kruse will entertain a number of her young friends at a Hallowe'en party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Christina Kruse, on West Central avenue this evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church, will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coleman on North Front street, Monday evening. It being Hallowe'en, the evening's entertainment will be in the form of a Ghost Party. All the old fashioned games will be played and all are anticipating a very enjoyable evening.

The Mizpah Bible class gave a hot chicken pie supper and program last night, which were a social and financial success. Everything was served in fine style. The room was prettily decorated, and they accommodated over two hundred. After the supper the class gave a concert, for which they have been rehearsing for some time.

Miss Ursula Farringer entertained a number of her young friends at a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. Painter on South Broadway last evening. Games and diversions that are coupled with the annual event were enjoyed and were followed by refreshments. It was one of the most delightful gatherings that has been enjoyed in many a day by the younger set. Among her invited guests were: Mary Kruse, Grace Williams, Anna Russell, Evelyn Flanagan, Bessie Douglas, Florence and Lucy Powers, Shannon and Zetta Mitchell, Wayne Painter, James Smeaton, Jack Merchant, Al. Haines, Elsie Hall, Nellie Warwick, Dagmar Fiesburg, Alice McLain, Frieda Holmes.

Miss Lena Berkrem of Gardner, who has been stopping at Bandon, is in the city visiting Miss Regina Matson for a few days.

Miss Mamie Mahoney will be an over Sunday guest of Mrs. Frank Rogers on South Coos River.

Mrs. A. M. Prentiss has gone east where she will spend the winter.

Miss Phoebe Larson of Larson's Inlet, is a Marshfield visitor.

The young people and friends of the First Baptist church, held a Hallowe'en social last evening at the Red Men's hall. The evening was spent in playing games. Also a short musical program was rendered, at the close of which refreshments were served. Those taking part

We Repair Shoes as Satisfactorily as We Sell New Ones

We like to sell you new ones, but we want all our shoes to wear you longer than any other—that's why we have such an excellent repair department.

Make them last you still longer by keeping them in good repair. Even the best thing made wears out—if shoes didn't we wouldn't be in the shoe or shoe repair business at all.

Let us fix your old ones and remember we give you 25 cents on each pair brought us for half sole. Just ask to see the kind of leather we use in making and repairing shoes.
