THEFT OF $350 IS REPORTED

H. Bunch, Logger, Claims It Was Stolen From Room In Hotel Last Night.

According to a story told to Marshal Carter, Henry Bunch, logger, last night had $350 stolen from his trousers pocket while he and his brother, A. L. Bunch, were sleeping in room J in the Blanco hotel.

Emerson Ferry, proprietor of the Blanco, stated at noon today that neither of the Bunch brothers had been around to see him concerning the matter and all he knew about it came indirect.

"As near as I can find out, the Bunch boys claim that they went to bed about 10 o'clock and they were called at 12 o'clock to catch the stage," said Mr. Ferry today.

Walker's room, pulled the bed away from the door and forced their way into the Bunches' room. Waters turned on the light and shook them and told them to get up and come back out and shut the door and Walker put his bed back and retired.

"Neither of the Bunch boys have been around to see me and I have been unable to find them. Somehow or other their story looks peculiar to me. It is said that they claimed they counted their money last night before they went to sleep and if they took that precaution, it is strange they would leave it lying on the floor in their trousers pocket.

COST OF RATE HEARINGS GREAT

Vice-President Burnham of the Burlington, Says Expense to His Road Will Be $800,000.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—According to vice-President Claude G. Burnham of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, rate decisions in what are known as the Denver, Spokane and other western rate cases, will cost his company $800,000. He also said that although the old rebating system reduced the freight revenue of the company three to five per cent, the Burlington is not in as good condition to accumulate a surplus as ten years ago.

MANY ARRIVE ON M. F. PLANT

Steamship Brought Thirty-Five From San Francisco—Will Sail Tuesday.

The M. F. Plant arrived in yesterday from San Francisco with thirty-five passengers and a large cargo of freight. She had a fairly good trip up the coast.

"Foxy" Schubert, the former purser of the Alliance, who has been on the Alaska run this summer, is now in San Francisco for a short stay. He plans to return to Portland soon.

Among those arriving on the Plant were the following:

T. W. Johnson, J. Hebgren, E. R. Neustadt, J. H. Somers, Miss Endicott, Miss D. Wilson, H. D. Wise, G. Flak, Geo. Day, M. P. Fisher, E. P. Eger, J. P. Kierau, H. J. Wehrlich, A. F. Masters, J. Otterman, W. H. Kyle, W. R. Sloutenger, Miss Randall, Miss V. Stauff, Gu Fu, P. McCauley, C. Valkorich, E. M. Mesener, A. Moritz, B. Cousins, J. Norman, J. Tent, E. Milgrem.

Marshal Carter is busy on the case today. He says that Bunch claims his "wad" consisted of seventeen $20 gold pieces and one $10 gold piece. Mr. Carter says that the window bears evidence of having been tampered with. The Bunch boys left for one of the logging camps today. They were going to go to their homesteads and fix up a bit with their savings, having been paid off at camp Saturday. They are sons of Jack Bunch, the pioneer logger of the Umpqua and Siuslaw.

During the last few months, there have been many reports of various ones being "touched" for from $20 to $50 each. In these cases, the parties "rolled" have seldom reported to the police direct, having generally been drinking at the time. However, the reports have reached various city officials and some of the councilmen have talked of taking steps to see that certain undesirables who are suspected of knowing something of the little deals leave town and stay away. Nothing has yet been done, however.

TONIGHT IS HALLOWE'EN

Annual Visit of the Goblins—Little Damage Is Anticipated.

Tonight is Halloween and the Goblins will be abroad and cause trouble for loose gates, fences or other articles that are loose or can be pried loose if you don't watch out. It is the night when good natured pranks are supposed to be excusable but if they are carried beyond the funny point, Jack Carter and Bill Shoup are liable to turn the joke. They did a few years ago since which there has been very little mischief done in Marshfield.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT EXPLODED

Two Years' Experience With Prohibition in Polk County Proves Unsatisfactory.

The following article appeared as an editorial in the Polk County Observer, the leading republican paper published in Dallas, Oregon. The article states the actual facts within that editor's knowledge after two years experience with prohibition. The article is as follows:

"One of the favorite arguments for 'dry' rule is that people pay their debts better in a 'dry' county than in a wet county. At first thought, this argument would seem reasonable; but when the cold figures are brought to bear on the subject, the average business man will have to admit there is nothing to it—at least, here in Polk county. And in its present Campaign of Facts, the Observer is devoting its attention strictly to Polk County.

The writer has interviewed many of the large and small business concerns of Dallas in the last few days, and this is what the merchants interviewed tell him:

First—That while collections are reasonably easy, they are not easier than they were two years ago.

Second—That men who drank when the county was wet are not paying their bills more promptly now than they did then.

Third—That very few of the drinking men who had owed them
