

CLOTHCRAFT ALL-WOOL CLOTHES

All Wool for Winter Warmth

ABOVE everything else your winter clothes must be warm, and for that reason all-wool. A yard of pure wool cloth will feel heavier and firmer and will actually be warmer than a yard of cotton-mixed cloth that is an ounce or more heavier.

You know, too, that wool is no conductor of heat and cold, and therefore keeps the warmth of the body within and the cold without. Clothcraft clothes are warm and comfortable because they are all-wool. They are comfortable, too, because they fit right, feel right and you know they look right and will stay right. You can't go wrong on Clothcraft clothes at $10 to $25, because they are guaranteed for wool, service and shapeholding.

Held Services.—Rev. J. Richard Olson held services at Eastside last evening.

Butter High.—Butter is now retelling here at sixty-five cents for pound and a half square. This is the highest it has been at this season for a number of years.

Is Better.—B. F. Savage of North Bend, who has been suffering from blood poisoning since last July, has recovered sufficiently to come to Marshfield today. He still suffers some from it.

Voting Places.—The voting places in the various precincts at next Tuesday's election will be practically the same as at the primaries in September. The election officials will also be practically the same.

Kid Aground.—The launch Kid last night while returning from Coos Bay ran far up on the mudflat opposite the Eastside landing and had not been got off late today by Capt. Lapp.

No Change Perceptible.—There is little or no change perceptible in the condition of A. G. Alken, the Marshfield pioneer who was injured in a runaway the night before last. He still suffers great pain from his internal injuries.

Builds Barn.—Eugene O'Connell has torn down the old landmark at the northeast corner of Front and Alder streets and is putting up a small barn there. The building will be a frame structure, being just beyond the fire limits.

Lost Keepsake.—Jas Stauff is mourning the loss of an Odd Fellows' pin a few days ago. The pin was carried by Mr. Stauff's father for about quarter of a century and was given by him to the son, who is now very anxious to recover it.

View of Coos Bay.—The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce is securing a dozen or so views of the town, its industries, the harbor and surroundings to be used by the Hill and Hartman railway exhibition cars on their tour of the east this winter.

Books For Library.—J. W. Snover has donated fifty-one volumes to the Marshfield public library. Nineteen volumes are of E. P. Roe's works and the other fifty-two are standard historical works. The library board is now endeavoring to secure an apprentice for library work so that in case the regular librarian cannot attend to the work, a substitute could be had.

Holiday Books

WILL HUTCHESON has taken a position at Norton & Hansen's.

C. F. McGEORGE is making a business trip to Coquille Valley points.

JOHN R. MILLER and wife of Port Orford, are visiting Marshfield friends.

C. A. SMITH and Arno Meren are expected here from California on the Nann Smith next week.

HUGO ANDERSON of Eastside, who has been in Astoria since last December, has returned to resume work on the Bay.

RALPH JACKSON, who has been laid up in Portland as a result of an accident is expected here soon to visit his father, Geo. Jackson.

WALTER ELLIOTT has gone to Bandon to become chief engineer of the schooner Randolph which is to run from the Coquille to Rogue River.

JOHN and ERNEST MATTSOn of Catching Inlet, made a brief business trip to Marshfield today. John Mattson is just completing a gasoline boat for Joe Schetter at Ten Mile.

TOM NICOLS returned today from a trip to Bandon. He reports that the indications are strong that they will strike oil near there, the well being down over 600 feet now. Some jokesters filled a jar with coffee and cream, and are exhibiting it to the gullible ones as real oil from the well, but they couldn't fool Tom.

North Bend News

J. C. Gray arrived here a few days ago from California to look after business affairs.

Miss Ida Gamble formerly of North Bend, is now principal of the consolidated schools of Chehalis, Wash.

George Sheridan of Roseburg, whose father is heavily interested in the North Bend milk condensary, has taken a position in the plant.

D. L. Buckingham, D. A. Jones and A. M. Prentiss are taking an inventory of the bankrupt clothing stock of L. A. Frey in North Bend. This is the third time an inventory has been taken, John H. Graves taking the first one and Peter Loggie the second.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

A southern exchange tells of a man who was "hit by a telephone pole going to a fire." What the said pole expected to do at the fire is not stated.

According to the census reports there are 33,000,000 church members in the United States. Persons who argue that the world is growing worse should study these figures.

College girls have decided that the typical man must have brown eyes, curly hair and at least $2,000 a year. Can't they cut out the curly hair requirement?

LITTLE TALKS ABOUT TOWN

A GRIST OF COOS BAY GOS-SIP GATHERED HERE AND THERE ABOUT THINGS OF INTEREST.

"Society women who are accustomed to spend from $8,000 to $10,000 a year for photographs of themselves and their children have seized on a new phase Motion Pictures of of this idea," remarked Children, a traveling man at The Chandler today. "They are asking to motion pictures and the phonograph. They want motion pictures of their children at play or at parties, so they may have them in after years just as they have their children photographed several times a year to keep until the children are grown up. Likewise they are keeping records of the voices of the children by phonograph. When the time arrives that both the motion pictures and the phonograph can be made to work synchronously the value of the picture and auditory records will be increased. The idea of society women at present is to take moving pictures of their children and to show them at Christmas time or on other occasions when the members of the family are gathered together. The fad, of course, is somewhat expensive, but society women in the larger cities have taken to it."

"Most men—and women—use more nervous force in speaking through the telephone than would be needed to keep them Telephone strong and healthy for Voice," said W. C. Tip-pets of the Home Telephone company.

"Nature knows no strain. True science knows no strain. Therefore, a strained, high-pitched voice does not carry over the telephone wire as well as a low one.

"Impatience, rudeness, indecision and diffidence blur communication by telephone even more than they do when one is face to face with the person talking."
