BETTING AGAINST WEST.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Nov. 8.—Rain in Portland did not deter the early voters but reports from country districts show the early vote was light. Betting is ten to nine that Jay Bowerman, republican, will win over Oswald West, democrat. Great interest is attached to the vote for and against prohibition.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.— Sections of far reaching importance are being held throughout the country today. In all states the members of the next national House of Representatives are being chosen except in Maine and Vermont which already have made their choice. In 28 states governors and full state tickets are being elected. In many of these states the legislators elected will name the United States senators. Most of the other states where the governors are not being elected will name United States senators. Other states are electing major state officers.

Early reports from all sections of the country show the poll is proceeding quietly with no indications of disorders and with general prospects of a heavy vote. The weather in most sections is good.
Snow has fallen in New York state and other eastern localities, but in the west and south with the exception of the Pacific northwest and California, the weather is clear and cold.

That exceptional interest is being taken in the election shown by the heavy vote reported from many points during the morning hours.
In Boston more than a quarter of the registered voters were cast in the first two hours. At Albany, N. Y., in many districts half of the votes were in before ten o'clock. Reports show of a similar heavy vote in other sections of the country, even some storm bound sections showing up well.

In West Virginia women were at the polls in large numbers for the first time urging constitutional amendments permitting women to hold certain appointive offices. No serious disorders was reported at any point.

FEAR STORM IN MONTANA.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay
Times.)
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 8.—The heavily vote came to the polls early and a normal total seems probable if the forecasted rain or snow does not set in. The party managers are making a supreme effort to secure a heavy vote before the storm sets in.

RAILROAD RATES ARE ATTACKED

Portland Lumber Companies Charge the Harriman Lines With Gross Discrimination.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay
Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.— Holding that Harriman system control is responsible for grossly discriminatory freight rates, the Portland Lumber Company and other big lumber concerns of the Oregon metropolis today complained that they are being shut out of the markets of Idaho, Montana and part of Utah.

The complainants include the West Side Lumber and Shingle Company, the Oregon and Washington Lumber Company, the Pacific Coast Door Company, and the Multnomah Lumber and Box Company. They allege that unreasonable tariffs which violate the law, are being maintained by the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific, the Oregon Short Line and other connecting carriers.

COUNTING TO BE VERY SLOW

Results of County Election Won't Be Known Inside of Thirty Hours.

A heavy vote is being polled in Marshallfield and throughout Coos County today. The interest in the "wet" and "dry" proposition is apparently greater than in any other.
At noon, only 78 votes had been cast in the South Marshallfield precinct but this afternoon, the voting there was more rapid.

At 1 o'clock, almost 200 of the 350 votes registered in the Central Marshallfield precinct had been cast.
In the North Marshallfield precinct, 182 votes had been cast at 3 o'clock.
A large number of votes are being sworn in. The voting is proceeding in a very orderly manner but it is faster than was anticipated owing to the many propositions to be voted upon.

The count of the ballots will begin when the polls close at 7 o'clock this evening. It is estimated that it will take five minutes to check each ballot so that the count alone will require nearly thirty hours straight work in many precincts. As a result, the results will not be known until late Wednesday or early Thursday.

RUMOR FRAUD IN SEATTLE

Democratic Election Judge Ejected and Trouble Is Feared in Many Precincts.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay
Times.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—The democratic judge of election in the first precinct of the first ward was ejected by the republican judges and another man substituted. This is one of the precincts where a large fraudulent vote is alleged to be regularly cast. Trouble was expected in a large number of precincts where there was "stuffing" in the spring election. The democratic committee has offered a reward of $250 each for the conviction of fraudulent voters.

A warm rain is falling here and generally throughout the state. The vote will be small.
Governor Senator J. M. Carey, running for governor on the Independent Republican and Democratic ticket, believes he will have 7,000 majority.
The legislature is claimed by both parties.

IN CONNECTICUT.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.— The prediction of the republican state headquarters of a plurality of 20,000 for that party's ticket and the claim of about 8,000 plurality for the democratic ticket by the leaders of that party, made last week are unchanged.

BAD WEATHER IN NEW YORK

Snowstorm Prevails Throughout State But Good Vote Is Being Cast.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay
Times.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—More than a million and a half voters today travelled to the polls over roads white with snow. Snow is falling in every part of the state except in the northern counties. Many towns report bad roads and bad weather continued. Both big parties this year are depending on a big rural vote.

Dix, the democratic candidate for governor, made a special appeal to farmers, and Roosevelt speaking for Stimson has not neglected up state points.
In New York City the day opened with a light snow storm and it is still snowing. The morning passed with no marked disturbances.
Unless the vote is close a line on the result is expected early this evening. In cities where machines are used the vote should be available within an hour or so after the polls close at five o'clock.

HUME'S BODY TAKEN SOUTH

Remains of King of Rogue River Will Be Buried
At Piedmont.

The body of the late R. D. Hume, the "King of Rogue River" is to be moved this week from its resting place in the promontory overlooking the mouth of Rogue River to a family vault at Piedmont, the California home of the Humes. Mrs. R. D.
Hume is arranging the removal of the body.

The removal of the body from the promontory on Rogue River is surprising to the friends of Mr. Hume.
His final request was that he be buried in this high, narrow isthmus overlooking the scenes of his years of endeavor and it was not known until recently that Mrs. Hume contemplated changing his burial spot.
However she is going to spend most of her time if not all of it in the future at the beautiful home at Piedmont which Mr. Hume bought a number of years ago and she desired that the body be interred there.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The situation in the South Wales coal fields where 30,000 miners are on strike because of the employment of non-union men, is so threatening today that the local authorities have applied for the services of British Cavalry. The government has ordered eighteen thousand Hussars to be in readiness to support the police who thus far have had the worst of it in conflicts with striking miners.
