Look at the Lining!

THE lining in your Clothcraft Clothes is in keeping with the Clothcraft standard of all-wool and guaranteed tailoring. It is perfectly put in and inspected with the same critical care given to every part of a Clothcraft garment.

You simply cannot pick a flaw in Clothcraft trimmings, finish, style, shape and fit.

So genuinely good are Clothcraft clothes that the makers put the strongest guaranty on them ever written for clothes—and we back every word of that guaranty.

Guaranteed pure All-Wool in the fashionable shades and weaves at $10 to $25. Where else can you find anything like this? You can't. Then why waste time looking farther?

Lund's Mottos:

Mottos are a good thing when you live up to them like O. O. Lund, the Marshfield shoeman, does. Here are a few business rules or mottos that are absolutely adhered to by him:

Our repair department does more for your money than any other shop in town.

Nobody can do better repairing than my shop turns out.

The shoes we sell and the repairing we do give you long lived shoes and satisfaction.

GOOD SHOES

And when it comes to good shoes for men, Lund is the man for you to see. He doesn't handle poor shoes. He is in business to stay and wants to build up a good business and consequently handles only good shoes. Even then he sells the best shoes on the market at prices that some charge for poor shoes.

See the shoes that he guarantees for wear and to be waterproof, and inquire the prices. You will be surprised how cheap he really sells good shoes for.

Remember the place.

O. O. LUND,

"The man who does things right." 215 South Broadway, Marshfield

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

ARAGO NEWS.

(Special to The Times.) There was prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church house Thursday evening.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Radabaugh has been quite ill for the past week.

Rev. Summerlin gave a temperance lecture in the Presbyterian church house Wednesday evening, November 2.

There was a spelling match at the Arago school house Wednesday evening. Mr. Lewis Strong of this place, spelled the school down.

Rev. Lyon and family who have been residing at Fishtrap for some months past, have moved to Myrtle Point where they will live for the winter.

There is to be a basket social in the Methodist church, Friday evening, November 11. Every one is invited. The money taken in is to go towards buying an organ for the church.

MYRTLE POINT NOTES.

News of the District as Reported in the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews of Norway welcomed a son to their home on the 8th.

Ira Clinton, who has a bad case of blood poison of the face, developing from a mere pimple, was operated on yesterday by Drs. Johnson and Stemmer, and seems to be much improved since.

Arthur Arneson fell from the roof of their barn east of town yesterday morning, spraining his back and wrenching his ankle. Dr. Johnson was summoned. He will probably be confined to his home for a couple of weeks.

Starting last Tuesday, the Myrtle Point-Roseburg stage line of which J. L. Laird is local agent, commenced on a two-day schedule between here and Roseburg, at no saving of expense to the company, but added comfort for the passengers. The stage has also been equipped with a cover, protecting passengers from the elements.

Myrtle Point has been receiving a mild voltage of electric light juice for something more than a week now, and even it has been an appreciable improvement over past conditions. Receiving but 90 watts the service has been practically confined to the business houses on Spruce street and the street lamps thereon. A very much improved service is promised by Mr. Morse as soon as transformers, which have been ordered from the east are received.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jason Jewett at the Morris logging camp on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bender and Mrs. Bender's sister, Miss Margaret Clinton left Monday for Portland, being taken to Roseburg by private conveyance. They expect to make their home in the Oregon metropolis.

Mr. Asa Carman of Eteika, and Miss Sarah Ward of Catching Creek, were united in marriage in the parlors of the Hotel Guerin, Wednesday evening, the 2nd, by Rev. Thomas Barklow. They will make their home on the groom's ranch in the South Fork valley.

C. C. Carter and Roy Royer killed a bear on Sugarloaf mountain on Monday of this week. They were walking along, when they heard a patter of footsteps behind them and turned to see Mr. Bruin, whom they proceeded to put out of the way with a few well directed shots.

O. E. Marsters was in town Saturday to receive surgical treatment, he having met with an accident Friday that resulted in the fracture of three ribs on the right side. He attempted to put a pig out of a pen by lifting it over a fence when his foot slipped and his weight in addition to that of the pig, threw him against a fence with force enough to fracture the ribs.

W. T. Lehnher, who has been working in the South Fork valley brought in last week a substance which was found in quite a large deposit, that is smooth and soapy to the touch, and of a bluish or lead color. It is supposed by some of the amateur geologists or mineralogists that it is either graphite or aluminum clay. The deposit was found this side of Roland Prairie.

(If the election didn't go your way just read this little ditty by Mr. Bangs and cheer up!)

Never mind a change of scene— Try a change of thinking, What if things seem sordid, mean, What's the use of blinking? Life's not always storm and cloud, Somewhere stars are shining, Try to think your joys out loud, Silence all repining.

By degrees, by thinking light Thinking glad and sweetly, You'll escape the stress of night, Worry gone completely, Get the habit of looking for Sunbeams prouetting, Tapping gaily at your door— Surest cure for fretting, — John Kendrick Bangs.

A Coos Bay man who has made trips to both places says that in Portland policemen try to keep visitors from doing what they want to do, but in San Francisco policemen assist visitors to have a good time.

Some Coos Bay men make a living because other people feel sorry for them.

"Have had a good time, must all agree Same time stuff's all off with me For Coos county's gone 'twenty-three' 'Gainst wine and beer and booze, you see." —THE ROUNDER.

The Quiet Observer says: "Another thing which is about as sure as death and taxes is that no man can go on bluffing indefinitely without being called."

THE COURAGE THAT FAILED

If I were cast away with you Out on the wide, wide sea, The last dear bite of bread we had, You should receive and, I'd be glad If you but smiled at me.

SHE If you and I were cast away, And but one drink remained, Ah, would you still sit back and smile, Content to see me strengthened while The precious flask was drained?

L'ENVOI Then sadly from her side be strayed, His last hope done to death; To get the courage he desired, He'd taken more, than he required, And she had smelled his breath.

Nine out of ten successful men, and ten out of ten pretty women are conceited.

The theory that talk is cheap doesn't take into consideration the fact that it has cost a good many jobs.

Some elderly Coos Bay women can look at a man with a mean, knowing look that will make him shiver.

At first a woman doesn't want anything but a husband, but just as soon as she gets one, she wants everything else in the world.

At a recent dance on Coos Bay a waltzing young man dropped a toothbrush on the floor. We should say a man has about as much use for a toothbrush at a dance as he has for a razor or revolver.
