

TWO NEW ARTISTIC PATTERNS FOR CUSHION AND CENTERPIECE

ST. MALO CUSHION COVER.
MORNING GLORY CENTERPIECE.

If you are tired of the ordinary, conventional embroidery pattern and desire something novel for your cushion cover and table centerpiece, why not try the St. Malo design shown in the upper part of the accompanying picture or the morning glory shown below it? Very little work is needed to bring to completion the morning glory centerpiece. The lines may be laid with the design stenciled in natural colors, so that all the needlewoman has to do is to outline them and fill in the veins of the leaves, doing the work with care and neatness, of course. The flowers are bordered in outline stitch in several shades of purple and pink. The leaves are dark green, and inside the cups of the flowers there are a few stitches of yellow and green silk.

The St. Malo design is carried out on a groundwork of gray linen. The colors of the pattern are pinks, greens and browns of various shades. Tans, browns and greens are another good color scheme, or for drawing rooms more delicate tints may be employed. The effect is artistic in any case if the work is carefully and well done.

FRANCES WARD.

Parsley Cure for the Complexion.
The latest remedy for a thick or spotty complexion is to wash it with parsley water. It is done in this way: You must take half a pint of rainwater and soak in it a large bunch of parsley, letting it remain in the water all night. In the morning when you dress you must rub the face well with a dry cloth, then dip your sponge in the parsley water and pass the damp sponge over your face, leaving it on without drying it. You must do this three times daily, and you will be surprised to see the spots or roughness disappear.

Society Becoming "Wild and Woolly."
The wild west show is the latest fad among society people. Buckskins and fringes are no end becoming to stunning girls and matrons, and, thanks to the fad for out of door exercise, there are plenty of these nowadays. The American girl rides with a freedom which rivals the frontier man's, and the vogue of cross saddle riding is growing rapidly.

The Latest Luck Bringer.
The latest luck bringer in Paris is the porte bonheur bracelet, says a New York fashion writer. It is a rigid circle of gold, not very wide, but quite round, with a hidden clasp and no ornamentation, which gleams on the wrist as a wedding ring on the finger. It is most potent when worn on the left wrist and loses its charm entirely when adorned.

Japanese Salad.
A recipe for a Japanese salad calls for a cupful of rice boiled so that the grains are neither too dry nor too sticky and cooled. This is put in a bowl and mixed with a teaspoonful of salt. Over it is sprinkled a quarter of a pound of almonds blanched, sliced and dried. Above the almonds are placed sliced mushrooms, and over all is poured a dressing composed of six tablespoonfuls of olive oil, two of lemon juice and one of soy. The mixture is tossed together and served in crisp, curved lettuce leaves.

WHERE "KING BABY" REIGNS SUPREME

If there is one place more than another at which the baby's rattle has the same significance and power as the king's scepter it is at the annual baby shows and parades that are held in some summer and fall resorts. Not alone in this country, but in England also, are baby shows and parades held. (It may be that the babies of other countries are asked to put their cute selves on exhibition, but patient research fails to disclose any record of such events.) The accompanying picture was taken at Folkestone, England, the great summer resort of our English cousins. Hundreds of pretty youngsters were brought out to be admired and to compete for the cups and other prizes that were offered. The Folkestone baby festival is not so big an affair as our own Ashbury Park baby parade and carnival, but it is quite as successful on a smaller scale.
