BOOSTS FOR COOS BAY.

Coos Bay has the natural foundations for a great harbor. European ports with far less to start with have become enormous cities. The land hog and the harbor bar keep back the development, but in time we will be able to make the land hog root out the sand bars of Coos, and when we do Marshfield, perhaps re-named, will be the second city in the state and possibly crowding the first one. —Portland Labor Press.

Not Touched by Human Hands

From the time the hard kernels of wheat are washed. Snow Drift Flour comes to you in as clean and pure a condition as one can imagine. Every batch of Snow Drift that goes through the mill is tested before it goes out. Bread is made of it in the mill's bake shop. Every batch of flour has to make perfect bread—else it doesn't go into the Snow Drift sacks. That is why the housewife who uses Snow Drift, all the time always has highly successful results in her baking of bread, biscuit and pastry.
