UNDER THE EVENING LAMP.

"Daddy, where does the summertime go?"
 "Go ask your ma!"
 "What would we have if we didn't have snow?"
 "Go ask ma!"
 "How do they put all the pits into plums?"
 "Santa Claus makes all the dollies and drums."
 "Don't he, pa?" "Why ain't our fingers all thumbs?"
 "Go ask ma!"
 "Why is the pigs' tails all twisty and curled?"
 "Go ask ma!"
 "Why don't we never fall off of the world?"
 "Go ask ma!"
 "Don't people never breath nothin' but air?"
 "Where does the shadows go, up on the stair,
 When there ain't nothin' ner nobody there?"
 "Go ask ma!"
 "Who was the very first parents of all?"
 "Go ask your ma!"
 "Didn't they never have parents a tall?"
 "Go ask your ma!"
 "How did it happen that you come to stay
 Here in our home with ma every day?"
 "Which of you started it anyway?"
 "Go ask your ma!"

one can tell what good thing may happen. You may through the coming hours realize a dream that has been uppermost in your thoughts and ambitions. You don't know what it may bring forth. Morning is the harbinger of hope. But it brings nothing if we allow a nightmare to enter in the awakening time.
 So:
 You have been out the night before—
 The morning is gray and you feel blue.
 You are late getting up and indeed you are "sore."
 Will it make the sun shine if you continue to whine,
 In the morning?
 Things have seemed wrong and piling up;
 Sleep has been fitful and you don't feel fit.
 You have made a mistake and you can't get a grip.
 Will things straighten out if you scoldingly shout
 In the morning?
 With every despair a new hope is born:
 The day dawns for you as well as for me.
 You can smile and win out in spite of that thorn.
 There are rosebuds of life in the brambles of strife
 In the morning?

Friday evening, Mrs. R. K. Booth was hostess at a delightfully informal little sewing party. Needlework was the evening's diversion and was followed by light refreshments. Among those invited were Mrs. P. M. Wilbur, Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Miss Elizabeth Kaufman, Miss Jessie Chase, Mrs. G. A. complimentary to their sister, Mrs. Willis H. Kennedy, who has just returned from her honeymoon trip.

The A. N. W. Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Rosa Preuss at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black in South Marshfield. Despite the inclement weather, eighteen members were present. Mrs. J. T. Hall who was elected president of the club at the last meeting, announced that her other duties would not permit her to serve and her resignation was accepted. Mrs. L. M. Noble, who was chosen vice-president at the annual meeting, was elected to succeed Mrs. Hall as president and Mrs. Rosa Preuss was elected vice-president. It was decided not to hold any meeting next week owing to Thanksgiving but the following week the club will be entertained by Mrs. W. P. Murphy.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. W. S. Chandler entertained the 'Bridge club at a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, huckleberries and Oregon grape predominating. In the table decorations with beautiful bouquets of red carnations, score cards, etc., a red color scheme was carried out by Mrs. Chandler. Besides the members of the club, she had as guests Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Mrs. E. Mings and Mrs. E. G. Perham. First prize was won by Mrs. E. K. Jones, second prize by Mrs. H. S. Tower and the consolation prize by Mrs. I. S. Kaufman. The next meeting place of the club has not been announced.

Doric Chapter, O. E. S., of Marshfield, has invited the members of Coos Chapter, O. E. S., of North Bend, to meet with them next Tuesday evening when they will have special initiation followed by a banquet. The acceptance of Coos Chapter has not yet been received but it is believed they will be present. The event promises to be one of the most delightful that the Eastern Star has held this year.

On Tuesday evening over fifty of the members and friends of the Red Cross Shoe

These are the styles that will be worn this season

Learn how different they feel in the Red Cross Shoe—how restful they feel.

Have your shoes just as fashionable but add the Red Cross comfort.

You can get the exact style you want and you will find that in the Red Cross Shoe, it fits much closer, has better lines and more character. You will be as enthusiastic about its effect on the appearance of your foot as about the way it feels.

The comfort of the Red Cross Shoe is due—not to any certain style or shape—but to the wonderful ease of its flexible sole, which is tanned by a special process.

Though of regular thickness, you can bend it double when new.

Women find they can put the Red Cross Shoe on in the store and begin wearing it at once, it is so easy on the feet.

Come in and see the new Fall styles. Bend them. Walk in them. Know how different they feel in the Red Cross Shoe. High Shoes $4, $4.50 and $5. Oxfords $3.50 and $4.
