

GARRISON FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

In Perkins Case Reaches Agreement In Less Than Four Hours.

APPEAL MOTION FOR ANOTHER TRIAL TODAY

Convicted Man Will Be Hanged Unless New Trial Or Appeal Saves Him.

(Special to The Times.)

COQUILLE, Ore., Nov. 21.—

Verdict returned about

Saturday in the case of Garrison who has been on at Coquille the past week charged with the murder of Roy Perkins near Sumner last summer. The trial was out less than three hours.

The penalty for murder in the first degree is hanging and Garrison faces the gallows unless another trial or an appeal shall save him.

This morning, Garrison's attorneys argued a motion for a new trial before Judge Coke and the latest took it under advisement. The attorneys asserted for the motion was in the court's instructions to the jury and the claim that the jury was affected by the constant presence of the rocks with which Perkins' body was weighed down, the attorneys having been lying on a table in the court room throughout the trial.

The verdict was not a surprise to attorneys who had followed the trial carefully.

The case was submitted to the jury about 8 o'clock and at fifteen minutes to twelve, word came from the jury that they had reached a verdict. Judge Coke and the attorneys were waiting to receive it and immediately went to the court room where it was delivered.

Today it was learned that during the jury's deliberations, ten jurors were for the verdict of murder in the first degree from the start while two were for second degree murder.

The two who hung out for second degree murder were F. W. Rehfeld of Marshfield, and Louis Heller of Coquille. After several ballots had been taken, they changed to the first degree verdict.

Garrison to Talk.

Garrison was in the courtroom when the verdict was read and while he looked nervous, he did not make any demonstration or say a word.

He still has some hopes and this morning, he told Tom Hall, one of the lawyers, that when he is called up to be sentenced, he is going to make a "speech" to the judge.

The jurors in the case were: J.

W. Barklow, Walter Sabin, F. W.

Rehfeld, L. C. Brown, C. H. Southard, George Folsom, T. T. Land,

F. E. Heller, A. O. Hooton, J. L.

Conroy, John Peart and Ole Lund.

WIRE IS DOWN

AGAIN TODAY

WESTERN UNION BETWEEN

COOS BAY AND ROSEBURG OUT

OF COMMISSION AND PRESS

REPORT IS DELAYED.

Due to last night's storm, the Western Union telegraph wire between Coos Bay and Roseburg has been out of commission all day and it is doubtful when service can be restored.

In consequence of the lack of wire service, The Times was unable to secure its regular Associated Press report today.

Manager Schetter has men out along the line to repair the breaks as quickly as possible but it is feared that the severe wind did damage to a number of points.

CITY CAUCUS IS TONIGHT

Candidates for Councilmen and Recorder to Be Nominated This Evening.

The city caucus to be held in the Odd Fellows hall at 8 o'clock tonight for the purpose of nominating candidates for councilmen and city recorder is exciting considerable interest around town today. While there is more or less discussion, none of the talked of candidates appear particularly anxious for the job.

Judge John F. Hall and C. A.

Johnson are reported to have informed their friends that they positively would not be candidates.

C. C. Going, Duncan Ferguson,

Milo Sumner and J. O. Langworthy appear to be the principal ones talked of. A number of South Marshfield people are urging Mr. Langworthy's candidacy. D. A. Jones says that he won't be a candidate although a number of his friends have been urging him.

J. H. Milner was also talked of but it is understood that he has not consented to be a candidate.

D. A. Jones and others are talking of bringing out F. S. Dow for councilman on a platform urging the improvement of North Front street.

Whether John W. Butler will have any opponent for reelection as re-recorder could not be ascertained this afternoon.

Others talked of this afternoon as possible nominees for councilmen were R. A. Copple and I. S. Smith.

CHURCH ADOPTS

MODERN METHODS

Des Moines, Iowa, Baptist Church

Advertises to Secure Sunday

Attendants.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 20.—The following want adv. appeared in the Saturday papers in this city:

WANTED—MEN, WOMEN AND children to go to Sunday school.

Apply at the Calvary Baptist church and Sunday morning.

Newspaper "want ad" columns are used to recover almost everything lost from shirt buttons to private yachts, to secure employes and cures for corns, but this Des Moines church is putting them to a new use.

"There is nothing revolutionary in the idea," said Edward O'Dea, a teacher in the Calvary Baptist Sunday school. "Advertising is being used for everything now. The churches in the east have been boosting their membership in this way. Cities advertise, telling of the advantages to be obtained in them, and even whole states advertise. We are trying to increase the membership of our Sunday school. Advertising agencies to be the most feasible means of doing this. We are merely employing the best method to obtain results for the best institution

I know of, the Sunday school."

BRIEFS OF RANDON.

News of City-by-the-Sea As Told By

The Eagle.

Grandma White fell yesterday while visiting a neighbor, and fractured the neck of her femur on the right side. The shock incident to the injury, and the long period of seven weeks to months required for the bone to knit, at her age of 78 years, make Grandma White's condition very serious.

C. S. Lorenz received a telegram announcing the birth, at Redding, Cal., Nov. 14, of a big baby boy to his sister, Mrs. S. S. Norton. Mr.

and Mrs. Norton formerly lived at Coquille.

S. P. IS BUSY TO CEDE LAND NEAR EUGENE

Company's Right of Way Agent Buying Route Along Siuslaw.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 21.—That the Southern Pacific Company is really in earnest about its recent anouncement, of its intention to build a line of railway from Junction City, on the main line, 12 miles north of Eugene, to the mouth of the Siuslaw

River, is evident by the fact that Major R. L. Edwards, of San Francisco, who obtained all the right-of-way for the company's Natron-Klamath Falls cut-off, is on his way to the mouth of the Siuslaw River, an-ouncing that the object of the trip is to begin the work of buying the right-of-way for the proposed line.

He is accompanied by Alf. Walker of this city, who was his assistant in the work of securing the Natron Klamath Falls right-of-way.

The company's surveyors are still working in the Coast Mountains west of Eugene. They first ran a line from Junction City to the Lake Creek Valley, but being unable to find a suitable pass over the mountains by that route, ran another line southward from Junction City to Elmira, thence westward along the coast. It is said that the company refuses to build the line from Eugene, claiming that the haul to Portland would be longer by way of this city, and it is looking for the shortest possible route.

BET ON A RAILROAD.

Roseburg Men Wager On Probable

Date of Construction.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 21.—

Know all men by these presents:

That I, J. W. Perkins do hereby bet and wager with Robert E. Smith, the same to be in the form of an agreement, that on or before September first A. D. 1911, railroad construction on a railroad between Coos Bay and Roseburg (said road to be within fifteen miles of Roseburg) shall be started and such start shall be evidenced by either the beginning of actual construction work or in the purchase of suitable and adequate terminals. It is further agreed that upon evidence being furnished, either in the construction of the road or terminals being purchased or at the end of this period the loser of either having been done, the loser of this bet is to immediately produce a certified check in payment for a suit of clothes not to exceed the sum of $60, drawn in favor of the party winning this wager.

If the said J. W. Perkins should be the winner of this bet one Josepa Micelli, of Roseburg, Douglas county, Oregon, hereby agrees to make the said Perkins a present of a $5.00 suit of underwear, a $5.00 hat and a $5.00 pair of shoes.

ROBT. E. SMITH,

J. W. PERKINS,

JOE MICELLI.

That J. W. Perkins, secretary of the Douglas County Development

Company, is in possession of inside information relative to the construction of a railroad between Roseburg and the coast is evidenced in the above transaction. While Mr. Micel-li and Mr. Smith are lending all possible encouragement to the railroad proposition—they are like many other Roseburg people, and are not inclined to believe that actual work will be commenced on the proposed road within the time specified in the agreement.
