BROKEN SHAFT PIN TROUBLE

M. F. Plant Arrives In From San Francisco After Slight Accident.

The M. F. Plant arrived in late last evening, coming in under her own steam. She was towed for about an hour and a half by the G. Lindauer, a lumber schooner, while a broken crank pin was being repaired.

The crank pin broke shortly afternoon yesterday just off Cape Blanco.

The sea was perfectly smooth and there was no particular reason for it other than the usual chance of machinery going wrong.

The plant will not carry any passengers south this trip as the full repairs cannot be made here.

Among those arriving on her were the following:

- W. K. Hunt, F. C. Birch, J. J. Sullivan, Harry DeVault, A. Noah, E. O. Cortelyou, G. Dorey, Sol Israel, J. F. Broad, Ed. Moller, E. Pastene, J. Pastene, E. Schillerstrom, G. MANY DIE IN ALASKA FLOOD

Chena River On Rampage and Many Miners and Settlers Lost.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

CORDOVA, Alaska, Nov. 25.—The number of settlers and miners stranded yesterday in sections of the Chena Valley by the flood is still uncertain today. It is believed that many perished as many houses were swept away. The disaster was caused by the escape of vast volume of water from Glacial lake in the surrounding mountains. Great icebergs floated from the slopes into the Chena river which has risen to feet, and is steadily rising.

MAKERS HARD HIT BY ORDER

"Get-Rich-Quick" Men Will Be Prosecuted By Government For Offenses.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Crusade of Postmaster General Hitchcock against "get-rich-quick" concerns is expected to cause a general exodus of fake promoters from this city. The postmaster general is determined to send to prison this class of promoters who, he says, sold the unsuspecting $100,000,000 of worthless securities in the last five years.
