Arrangements are being made for a reception to be tendered Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Browning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac the week between Christmas and New Year's. The exact date has not been set. The reception is in the nature of a welcome and has been planned for some time and the date was set once or twice but it had to be postponed on account of conflicting with dates of other events. The function will be public, all members of the Episcopal congregation and their friends being invited. It will probably be an evening affair.

The Progress Club will meet with Mrs. I. S. Kaufman Monday, December 5. The last meeting of the club was with Mrs. J. W. Ingram at her home in South Marshfield. The club spent a most delightful afternoon with Wagner. Mrs. Ingram read a carefully prepared biography of the composer and sang two selections from his operas, with Mrs. G. W. Kaufman as accompanist.

Mrs. Henry Sengstacken entertained at luncheon Friday complimentary to Mrs. Geo. W. Langford of Stockton, Cal. The guests were nearly all old friends of the guest of honor who was a former Coos Bay girl.

The American Woman's League will hold their regular meeting next Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Murr in North Bend and all league members are invited to be present at that time.

The A. N. W. Club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. P. Murphy at her home on North Broadway. Twenty-one of the twenty-five members were present and the afternoon was spent at needle work. Refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Reed at the J. M. Upton home when adjournment will probably be taken until after the Christmas holidays.

Charles Cavanaugh and wife of North Bend, were host and hostess at a delightful social affair at their home Tuesday evening. Various games and diversions contributed to the evening's entertainment. Among those present were:

Rev. and Mrs. Albright, Judge Shuster, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hodson, Mrs. Ed. Coffelt, Mrs. Foote, Miss Mabel Noah, Miss Annie Smith, Miss Cynthia Vineyard, Miss Ada Clinkinbeard, Jessie Culbertson, Della Culbertson, Violet Johnson, Percy Pratt, Ralph Clinkinbeard, Mason Noah, Mr. and Mrs. Nece, Miss Madge Goulder, Sarah Webb, Robert Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh, Mrs. E. R. Hodson, Miss Lillian McCann, Leonard Darks, Joe Barber, Miss Joella Hodson, Baulah Summerlin, Miss Erna Hodson, Edith Cavanaugh, Clare, Eldon and Hubert Cavanaugh, Evan Hodson, Fremont Hodson.

The monthly meeting of the Swedish Lutheran Young Peoples' Society held last evening was one of the most interesting and pleasant held so far. About 60 persons were present. Several new members joined the society. Besides selections by the choir and a vocal solo by Mr. B. B. Ostlund, the Rev. Olson delivered an address on "Gustavus Adolphus," King of Sweden, from 1612 to 1632, the wise and fearless champion of Protestantism and religious freedom, the greatest hero of the "Thirty Years' War." After the program refreshments were served by Misses Lucy Thorwald, Hilda Stenholm, Anna Gidmark, Messrs. Ernest Matson and Pearly Lund. The next meeting at which also the semi-annual election will be held, will take place the first Friday in January, 1911.

Mrs. J. H. Miller entertained a few friends at sewing Wednesday afternoon. Among her guests were: Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer.

Eric Johnson and wife of South Marshfield celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Tuesday, November 29, a number of relatives gathering their home and assisting them in making the event a most happy occasion. Events of days gone by were retold, reviving pleasant memories that had almost been forgot. Refreshments were served. The worthy couple were recipients of many handsome and suitable presents.

J. W. Bennett and wife leave today for a week's stay in Portland and Salem.

Miss Genevieve Sengstacken returned this week from a month's stay with friends in Portland.

The Tuesday Night Whist club's next meeting place has not been definitely fixed. Next Tuesday evening is the regular meeting date and Mrs. Wm. Grimes was to entertain them but as Mrs. Grimes has been unwell, the meeting will probably be with another member of the club.

Miss Maude Painter expects to leave about December 15 for Tulsa, Okla., where she will spend the winter with her sister.

The Evergreen Bridge Club was entertained last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. J. Butler. At cards, Mrs. C. W. Tower won first prize, and Mrs. F. A. Hazard and Mrs. F. M. Friedberg tied for the consolation prize.

the latter going to Mrs. Hazard on the cut. This afternoon, the club is being entertained by Mrs. J. T. McCormac.

Dry Your Clothes on a Wet Washday

With a New Perfection Oil Heater

When clothes can't be hung outside, and must be dried in a room or cellar, the New Perfection Oil Heater quickly does the work of sun and air. You can hang up the wet clothes, light your Perfection Oil Heater, open the damper top, and the heat rises and quickly dries the clothes.

Do not put off washing to await a sunny day in order to avoid mildew. Dry your washing any day with hot air from a

PERFECTION OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It gives just as much heat as you desire. It is safe, odorless and smokeless.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. Burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and can always be easily unscrewed for rewicking.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not need to be screwed down, but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong and durable, well-made, built for service and yet light and ornamental. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

Desires Everywhere. If not at yours, write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the

It Takes More than Good Flour

To make first class bread, biscuit and pastry all the time. The flour has to be the best, of course, but it has to be uniform in every sack too. That's why Snow Drift is so popular. You will find the flour in one sack identically the same in every sack. It is tested at the mill's bake shop to make sure. Every batch of wheat that goes through the mill is washed clean. It isn't touched by human hands from that time till it reaches you. Only the finest selected Northwestern grown, Blue Stem wheat goes into Snow Drift Flour. Try just one sack and learn how good your bread, biscuit and pastry can be.
