Marshfield are now being made and a meeting will probably be held at the Marshfield Methodist church late Friday afternoon for the purpose.

Saloons Closed.—The Marshfield saloons are closed today on account of city election, the law providing that the saloons shall be closed from the hour the polls open until the polls close.

To Get Suits.—Wm. Grimes today is collecting the subscriptions to the fund for purchasing the uniforms for the Coos Bay Naval reserves. The Marshfield divisions are drilling regularly and last night elicited much favorable comment by their showing.

In Runaway.—Geo. Wasson and Ira Metcalf while driving along the county road at Rocky Point last Saturday evening, had a bad accident. The heavy rains had washed out a deep cut in the grade and the horse fell in. After a wild scramble he worked himself out, smashed the buggy and dragged Mr. Wassen quite a distance. He was not badly hurt, but Metcalf's leg was severely bruised.

Don Lyons Ill.—Mrs. J. T. McCormac today received a letter from Mrs. J. E. Lyons stating that their son, Dan, had been operated on at Aberdeen, November 29, for appendicitis. It was a very severe case and for a time, grave doubts were held for his recovery. However he is now on the road to recovery which will be gratifying news to the many friends of the estimable family on Coos Bay.

Has Prize Hen.—John Longstaff of Marshfield, has a prize hen which he will exhibit at the Coos Pet and Poultry show which will be held here Wednesday and Thursday. She holds a record of laying 187 eggs in 243 days and Mr. Longstaff would like to see a "biddy" that compare with this. As eggs are now worth seventy cents per dozen, it can be figured out how a few hens like this one would put a man on easy street.
