HOLDUP IN BANDON.

Joe Young Robbed and Badly Beaten By Thugs.

The Bandon Eagle says: "Pummeled, choked and nearly killed by unknown masked men in his bedroom just after midnight, Sunday morning; then robbed of $16 in cash, a gold watch, his keys and knife, Joe Young, a Bandon bachelor, is showing his friends the marks of his untoward encounter with the two burglars who assaulted him.

"Breaking in the door of his bedroom, the brutal assailants found Joe asleep in bed, and unceremoniously and roughly awakened him. This cowardly act was accomplished by one man holding his feet and the other robber kneeling on his chest with a smothering sensation, and quickly realized that he was in ruthless hands. Grappling with his assailants, he moaned:

"Don't kill me; no use to kill me; all the money I've got is on the chair."

So the burglars took the money and other plunder, and let Joe live.

One man has already been arrested on suspicion.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.) OREGON — Rain tonight and Friday.

Plant Due Friday.—The M. F. Plant will arrive in tomorrow morning from San Francisco, having sailed from there yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Surveyors at Gardiner.—According to reports from Gardiner, it is expected that some of the Southern Pacific surveyors who have been working from Eugene via Florence towards Coos Bay will reach Gardiner tonight.

Enjoy Social.—The social given by the W. O. W. last evening in the Odd Fellows hall, was largely attended and proved a most enjoyable event. Cards, dancing and other diversions afforded a great variety of entertainment and were followed by refreshments.

Extend Hours.—Owing to the increased business, the local Western Union office will be open until 9 o'clock at night instead of 8 o'clock in the evening hereafter. The local office has been doing a heavier business than ever before, and Manager Schetter has been allowed additional help to handle it.

Has Paralysis.—Joshua Nelson, a well-known pioneer of Marshfield and formerly a member of the Marshfield city council, sustained a stroke of paralysis at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Bridges, and is in a very critical condition. He is over eighty years old.

Baby Is Dead.—Walter Foote, who was a member of the F. A. Haines surveying party, has received a telegram from his wife in North Dakota announcing the death

FOR SALE—Pure bred Rhode Island red cockerels, one and two years old.—L. J. Simpson.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply Mrs. M. C. Horton.

FOR RENT—or for sale—Modern glass show case and counter. Apply "O" Times' office.

LOST—Patent purse with $1.30 in silver near Gardiner's Central Avenue, Monday night. Finder, please return to Gay Clausen, Times' carrier boy.

OPPORTUNITY—The automatic designating nests is more essential to the poultry business than the incubator, they designate the layers, and prevent egg eating, see them at the poultry show.

LOST—Gentlemen's scarf pin—Amethyst and pearl setting. Return to Times office and receive reward.

FOR RENT—Warm rooms furnished—Close in. Apply Times.

FOR RENT—Two nice front rooms in Sengstacken Building, just vacated by Public Library. Rent $12.50 per month. Title Guarantee and Abstract Co.

WANTED—Strong woman or girl to care for elderly invalid. Apply Mrs. Sengstacken, Marshfield, Or.

REAL ESTATE BARGAIN. 450-acre ranch in Coos county same improvements, 4 million feet timber underlaid with coal and mineral, $25.00 per acre. Lots at Bunker Hill special bargains. AUGUST FRIZEEN, 68 Central Ave. Marshfield, Ore.

of their two-months-old son, Walter. No particulars were given and it came as a great shock to him as he had expected Mrs. Foote and the boy to join him here before the Christmas holidays.

Change Boats.—The Union has taken the place of the Garland until after the holidays on the Isthmus Inlet run. The Union has larger carrying capacity and can accommodate increased traffic.
