So it is with Clothing. The price may be low, but if the goodness and the staying quality isn't there, the saving is fictitious.

There isn't a line of Clothing in America to equal ours in style, fit and lasting shape for the price, $10.00 to $25.00.

BORN.

Bjorkquist—To Mr. and Mrs. William Bjorkquist of Catching Inlet, Saturday, December 10, 1910, a bouncing boy. Mother and son doing nicely.

Sails South—The Nann Smith which arrived in Saturday, sailed early today for Bay Point with a cargo of lumber.

Mr. Snover says he is doing fine and that Toppenish is a very good town. However, he says he still "has a warm spot in his heart for Coos Bay."

Want Assistant—The Public Library committee is endeavoring to secure a young woman who will assist the librarian, Miss Jamison, with a view of learning library work. The library is being more largely patronized than ever since it moved into the new quarters and the work is becoming almost too much for one person.

Pays Big Judgment—L. E. Reynolds of the Reynolds mill, today confirmed a report that the Simpson Lumber Company had paid him the balance of the $28,000 damages claimed for the company breaking its contract. The matter was threshed out in the circuit court, the verdict against the Simpson Company being for about $15,000. At the time, it was announced the case would be appealed but it has been adjusted without the appeal being taken.

Will Give Bonds—F. S. Riebe, who was arrested Saturday on troubles following the closing of the People's Cooperative Company, has furnished $300 bonds. C. H. Marsh, who was elected secretary of the company a few weeks ago, states that J. E. Quick had Mr. Riebe arrested as an absconding debtor instead of on a charge of misappropriating funds. Mr. Marsh says that the books of the company are in bad shape and apparently Mr. Riebe is indebted to the company of a few hundred dollars, and it was the desire of the company that Mr. Riebe remain here until experts can straighten out the books.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Valley As Told By Enterprise.

L. H. Pearce, has recently taken up taxidermy work and the first specimens he has mounted furnish evidence that his work in this line will be superior to anything heretofore done in Coos county. One of his first jobs was the mounting of the head of L. A. Robert's buck deer which had to be killed because he was becoming so savage as to endanger those who entered the park. Mr. Roberts still has a number of deer in his herd.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Robison of the North Carolina settlement, died the first of the week and was buried in the Neil cemetery.

SAYS MORTGAGE IS BAD.

W. P. Evans Charges Fraud in Kinney-Waite Affairs.

The Portland Journal in article telling about the action of the federal court in the Rapid Transit and Belt Line bankruptcy cases, the details of which were printed in The Times Saturday, says:

"W. P. Evans, one of the creditors of the companies, asked the federal courts to intervene on the grounds that mortgages given by the corporations to J. N. Shahan, F. B. Waite and L. D. Kinney on October 6, 1910, were fraudulently given to escape the bankruptcy cases filed against the companies and against Kinney November 21, 1910. The mortgages were to have been foreclosed Monday, and it is alleged they were given on real estate, representing the only valuable holdings of the defendants, for something over $100,000.

EXPECT BIG CROWD.

Complete Plans for Chaminade Concert Wednesday Evening.

An unusually large audience is anticipated for the concert to be given by the Chaminade Club Wednesday evening at the Masonic opera house. It is seldom that Marshfield people have an opportunity of hearing an artist of such note and a study of the program for the evening, which has been published, shows the high class music which will be given. In addition to the songs by Mrs. Dearborn-Schwab there will be several numbers by the club chorus and piano selections.

The entertainment will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Patrons who arrive later than that time will not be seated during any of the numbers and will be asked to wait until between numbers. The members of the club have gone to a large expense in order to make possible the concert and a patronage of Marshfield people sufficient to pay the expense of the undertaking is deserved.

A present worth giving should be one worth remembering. WE HAVE the styles that will give remembrance to the giver.—RED CROSS JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.
