Some Christmas Suggestions

For your wife—A cookbook.
 For your servant girl—A sealskin cloak.
 For your rich relatives—Diamonds.
 For your poor relatives—Nothing.
 For your wife's relatives—Less than nothing, if you can obtain it.
 For the guest within your gates—A gentle hint to go.
 For your maiden aunt—A husband.
 For your unmarried enemy—The maiden aunt aforesaid.
 For your minister—A Bible.
 For your son—A position downtown with some one who will make him earn his salt.
 For your daughter—Some clothes to help her capture some unsuspecting man.
 For some unsuspecting but otherwise worthy young man—The aforesaid daughter.—Yellow Book.

The Day That Comes but Once.
 "Though Christmas comes but once a year, I wish it might be twice."
 Said Willy Jones, the little dear.
 "Because I think it's nice."
 But papa, reading Santa's bill, Said: "Once is once too often, Will."

Christmas North and South.
 Washington celebrates Christmas in the northern style, a la New England—that is to say, by simply closing the stores and keeping quiet—but Alexandria, Va., celebrates in good old southern style, with rockets, roman candles, firecrackers, torpedoes, noise and general rejoicing hilarity.

Northern people often wonder why it is that the southerners celebrate Christmas like the Fourth of July and the latter holiday like Christmas, but the reason is not far to seek. The southern Christmas is the Christmas of old Merrie England, Germany and France before the reformation. According to the view of all good and orthodox Christians of that period, the birth of Christ was an event such as to cause delight and general rejoicing among men, and consequently they celebrated the Lord's birthday with the proper demonstrations of rejoicing. The Puritans were inclined to frown down religion of this sort, so that when America was settled by Cavalier and Puritan each celebrated the day in his own way.—Washington Post.

NORTH BEND SCHOOL NEWS

Tests in chemistry, rhetoric and Latin were held the first two periods Monday morning.

Emil Lockdam, the boy whose arm was accidentally shot last Sunday, is a pupil of the Fourth grade.

Superintendent Tiedgen of the Marshfield schools, was a visitor at the North Bend schools Thursday.

Tuesday morning Rev. Blackman visited the high school and spoke a few words to the student body during the morning exercises.

Marion H. Reynolds was a visitor at the High School Friday morning. He is president of the Alumni Association of the North Bend High School.

Another visitor at the High School yesterday was Rishia McDonald of Ten Mile, who was a freshman last year, but on account of ill-health was unable to attend school this year.

Friday afternoon the boys of the sophomore class accepted the challenge to play the boys in the other classes a game of basketball which resulted in a score of 15 to 9 against the sophomores.

The High School Teachers' association will meet at Coquille in the county superintendent's office, December 30. At this meeting, some changes in our present school laws will be discussed.

Those on the assembly program this week were:

Monday—Piano duet, Naomi and Lorenzo Smith.

Tuesday—Piano duet, Edith Thomas and Gladys Kranlek.

Wednesday—Reading, Grace Fulton.

Thursday—Piano solo, Faith Hunt.

Friday—Vocal solo, Ellen Anderson.

A great many of the High School boys joined the Motor Boat club last week. It is planned to hold an inter-high school rowing contest in the spring and the boys are making ready for it.

The Mothers' and Teachers' club met Thursday afternoon and the following program was rendered:

Piano solo—Miss Gladys Kranlek.
 Vocal solo—Miss Butler.
 Address—"Self Control of the Mothers in the Homes," Rev. Blackman.

Address—"Self Control of the Boys and Girls Should be Taught in the Homes and not in School-room," Prof. Beaumont.

Address—"Self Control of the Teachers," Superintendent A. G. Raab.

Trilo—"Tide of Life," Ellen Anderson, Edith Allger, Helen Mende.

Vocal solo—Edith M. Allger.
 General discussion by the members.

$3.50 RECIPE CURES WEAR KIDNEYS, FREE
Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.
Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead, and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1491 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich. and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.
