LOCAL GLEANINGS

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight and Sunday.

Meet December 27.—The Marshfield city council will hold its next meeting December 27, no meeting being held next week.

W. N. Ekblad Leaves.—W. N. Ekblad left on the Breakwater today for Portland, where according to rumors, he will get the greatest Christmas present of all—a bride, a former Marshfield girl.

Sails In.—The Omega sailed in over the bar yesterday. She had just arrived from San Pedro and took advantage of the favorable weather to make the trip in under her own sail instead of waiting for the tug. She will load at the Simpson mill.

Buy Business.—Perry Dodson today purchased Chas. Leach's interests in the Marshfield Cleaning and Dye Works on South Broadway and will continue it with Arthur Blanchard under the firm name of Blanchard & Dodson. He is an experienced man in this line of work.

School Is Out.—The Marshfield schools closed yesterday for the holiday vacation of two weeks. Bunker Hill and Eastside schools will have only one week vacation and will close next Friday for the vacation. The North Bend schools will also have only one week's vacation.

New Minister Here.—Rev. Dr. J. T. M. Knox of Long Beach, Cal., is here considering a call from the Marshfield Presbyterian church. He comes highly recommended and made an excellent impression on those whom he met today. He will preach two sermons at the church tomorrow, one at 11 o'clock a. m., and the other at 7:30 p. m.

Leaves Town.—Jas Monohan, arrested for creating a disturbance in the north part of town, did not put in appearance when his case was called at 10 o'clock this morning by Recorder Butler. Marshal Carter understood that he had left town and his $25 cash bond was declared forfeited and he now faces arrest on the same charge on his return.

Married Today.—Miss Effie Metcalf and Fred E. Sandberg were married today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Coddling at Millington, the Rev. J. Richard Olson officiating. The young couple are well-known and will have the best wishes of scores of friends. Mr. Sandberg is employed at the C. A. Smith mill.

Favors Fire Engine.—August Priezen has received a letter from Dooly and Company, general fire insurance agents at Portland, in which he says that it would be false economy for the city to fail to purchase a fire engine. He says that he inspected the fire fighting apparatus here and was anything but favorably impressed by it.

Fix North Front Street.—North Front street property owners at a meeting last night decided to build their own bulkhead and put it back sixty feet on the property line in most places. They also decided to have all float houses removed at once so that that section of the city can be cleared up. They are ready to go ahead just as soon as they are certain the dredge Oregon will fill the lots and street.

Returns From Coquille.—Justice Pennock has returned from Coquille where he was a witness yesterday in the case of Dr. Burroughs vs. J. D. McNeil, executor of Mrs. John Nasburg's will. The jury returned a verdict against Dr. Burroughs. While there, the grand jury reported that they had several matters under consideration on which they were not prepared to definitely report. They recommended that new chairs be bought for the judge and jurors and a sanitary matting be put on the courtroom floor.

PERSONAL MENTION.

STANLEY P. BARTLETT is here from Randolph on business.

C. J. MILLIS left this morning for Portland where he will spend a week or so on business.

MATT ANDERSON of Beaver Hill, was in Marshfield today on business.

PROF. HEWITT of the High School, is confined to his home by a severe cold and a threatened attack of tonsillitis.

MISS SIGNA HOLM, who is attending the state university at Eugene, is expected home today to spend the holidays.

MRS. JAMES R. Robertson of Chicago, Ill., who has been visiting her brother-in-law, W. J. Robertson, has decided to remain here. Neils OLSON of Eastside, employed at the Smith mill, has been kept at home this week on account of illness. He is gradually recovering and will return to work in a few days.

W. J. ROBERTSON and family leave on the Redondo Sunday for California and southern points on account of the health of Mrs. Robertson, which has become very much impaired, but she hopes to soon recuperate. Mr. Robertson will return here in March to attend to business matters. Mr. Robertson's oldest son, W. LeRoy Robertson, will remain on the Bay till his father returns.
