LET US TALK IT OVER

That makes no difference to the men who for political reasons, personal prejudice or a desire to pander to all that is base in human nature will pay the poor depraved dupes to continue its publication. In its last issue it boldly boasts that if every advertisement is withdrawn it will continue to be published. No further proof is needed that there are other men behind it. Of course, it will be published unless the people of this community assert their manhood and womanhood and suppress it. Someone is putting up the money. Who is it? The people have a right to know who is behind the degenerate wretches who are willing to bear the brand of shame for the miserable pittance that will permit them to continue their low and loathsome existence. They represent a combination of viciousness, intemperance, immorality and malign meanness seldom found. Their only place here is in the penitentiary which they often escape and hereafter hell, when they will not be so lucky, but will be assigned its deepest, darkest, hottest pit, reserved for corruptors of children, debauchers of homes, defamers of women and maligners of men.

If the people of this community are willing to tolerate this open sewer of filth pouring its moral poison into schools and homes, The Times will not be a party to it. I shall cry out its villainy that others may not be corrupted. No man who respects his wife and reveres his children would knowingly bring them to a place where they could not escape the foul pollution and corruption that is spread like a pestilence by this vile publication.

There are a number of honest conscientious men and women in Marshfield who have devoted much effort and time to fighting the saloons. Without defending or defaming these resorts I desire to go on record here as saying that all the saloons on Coos Bay would not do as much harm in a year as this publication with its indecent stories and shameful suggestions would do in one week when it gets into the hands of boys and girls at school to poison their youthful and innocent minds with filthy and suggestive stories.

When the proper time comes and it is necessary the whole shameful story will be told. There will be no mincing of words either. I promise that the men involved, no matter how high they stand, will be named and the scarlet letter of shame so stamped upon them that life will not be long enough to live down the dishonor or dim the dark crimson of the awful brand.

It is high time that the Christian people of this city took some stand and action as a united body. It is equally opportune that the Chamber of Commerce, through its executive committee took some note of a menace that threatens the future welfare of a city to whose good they are pledged. This must be done or else they must share in the shame and ignominy involved in the continuation of a publication devoted to debauchery.

All that I have said, all that I have done in this matter has been said and done with advance knowledge of the disagreeableness of the duty. When you corner a rat it will fight. When you tread on a serpent it will thrust out its poisonous and venomous fangs, but it is necessary to kill rats and scotch serpents. I have taken this stand because I know it to be my duty and it was done because I love my city and its people. Here I have given three of the best years of my life in an effort to help build up the city that I call Home.

Shall it be in vain?
