Didn't Call Him Names.
Mickey's mother visited a young schoolteacher on the east side the other day, says the New York Sun. As nearly as she could make out from the mother's splutterings the teacher had been calling Mickey "names that no lady would use and no decent mother would stand for." The teacher thought hard, but could recollect no time when she had given way to an impulse to call Mickey dreadful names. "Sure but you did," insisted the mother. "I don't know what you meant by it, but scurvy elephant is no nice name to call a boy. That's what he said you called him—a scurvy elephant."

"Scurvy elephant! No," said the teacher in a relieved voice. "I didn't call Mike a scurvy elephant. I called him a disturbing element, and I reiterate my statement."
Mickey's mother went home partially satisfied, but not quite sure that the teacher hadn't been calling her names too.

To the Highest Bidder.
Even tobacco buyers have their troubles. One of them, who represents a New York house, met a Connecticut man who had sold his crop. The buyer was amazed at the price the man said he had received.
"You have been cheated," said he. "You are entitled to more money than that."
"Well," replied the farmer, "nothing has been paid to bind the bargain."
"Then I'll give you 5 cents more a pound and a bonus of $100 for the crop."
"Agreed," exclaimed the farmer, and he received a check for the full amount.
"Oh, by the way," observed the buyer, "who was my rival in this transaction?"
He was informed.
"I might have known it," said he sadly. "That man is my partner."—New York Press.

Roosevelt the "Feminine."
It has just been discovered by Duffield Osborne that Mr. Roosevelt "is a typical embodiment of the feminine in man." Mr. Osborne announces the discovery in the Forum and lucidly upholds it. "A woman's horizon, we are told, is not less distant than a man's, but when she gazes at it she 'holds up her hands like blinders and sees only the small segment that is straight ahead instead of allowing her eyes to sweep around the circumference.' It has been supposed that Mr. Roosevelt in the course of his seven years in the White House surveyed nearly all the known subjects surveyable by the human mind, but Mr. Osborne nevertheless finds that "his is pre-eminently a mind that sees one thing at a time, or, in other words, works by intuition pure and simple." Therefore is he a feminine type.

Put His Foot Down.
"What we must do," thundered the politician, walking rapidly down the street beside his bored acquaintance—"what we Englishmen must do is to put our foot down firmly on these foreign imports." And, to show that he could practice as well as preach, at that moment he put his foot down on the skin of an imported banana. And his friend walked on alone.—London Globe.

BOXING CARNIVAL TO BE HELD SATURDAY NIGHT

Owing to the delay in the arrival of Kid Williams, the date of the boxing carnival to be held here has been changed from Friday night, December 30, to Saturday night, December 31. The affair will be pulled off at the Skating Rink and some of the cleverest exhibitions ever seen here are expected. John Herron is managing the affair.

The principal bout will be a ten-round go between Kid Williams of San Francisco and Jess Day. Day is so well-known here that little need be said of his record. Kid Williams comes with a long string of victories and it is expected that he will give Day the liveliest time the latter has ever seen. Some of those that have met Williams and the time it took him to dispose of them are as follows:

Young Downey, knockout in fourth round; Young Choyanski, knockout in the sixth round; Fred Muller, knockout in sixth round; George Herbert, knockout in first round; Jack Male, knockout in fifth round; won from Buddy King in 20th round; Young Mitchell, knockout in first round; Montana Kid, knockout in first round; Kid Dewey, knockout in 12th round; Dutch Thurston, knockout in 6th round; Frank Field, knockout in ninth round; Mike Donovan, decision in tenth round; Al Neill, stopped by police in eleventh round; Ben Ott's, knockout in first round; Frank Jeffries, knockout in fourth round; Young Gibbs, knockout in seventh round; Kid Burns, knockout in fourth round; Harry Jones, knockout in third round; lost to Frank Mantell in thirteenth round; won from Rube Smith in second round; Fritz Holland, knockout in third round; Dixie Kid beat him by staying five rounds.

Besides this go, Manager Herron has arranged for a preliminary between Pockey Burns of Oakland, and Kid Krueger of Coos Bay, and also expects to have a second preliminary. The events are expected to start about 8:30 o'clock. Tickets are now on sale at the Bell Cord, the prices being $2 and $3.
