—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Ferry Tied Up.—The ferry Transit is laid up for a day or so as a result of an accident to the engine.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Case Dismissed.—The charges against J. H. O'Donnell, who was charged with disturbing the peace at the Breakwater hotel several days ago, was dismissed by Recorder Butler, the complaining witness not appearing.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Marshfield Lutheran church will be held next Monday evening at 7:30. The annual meeting of the Swedish Lutheran church in North Bend will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Novel Windows.—The rear windows of the new Seventh Day Adventist church, in West Marshfield have the ten Commandments inscribed on them, one bearing six and the other four. The windows are attracting much attention.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Breaks Rib.—Martin Breen of Eastside, slipped on the top step of the stairway of his home the other day and fell breaking the third rib on his left side and seriously injuring his thigh. He is getting along nicely to the gratification of his many friends.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Moves Office.—Dr. J. W. Ingram yesterday moved his office from the Coos building to the new Coke building where he has furnished a fine suite of rooms on the second floor. He has rooms No. 209-210 in the southwest corner of the building, facing on Second and Central avenue.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Son Is Ill.—Wm. Franzenbach and wife left today with their young son, William, for Portland and from there will go to the springs in hopes of securing relief for their son who has been suffering severely from spinal trouble. Mr. Franzenbach says about forty children at Bandon have been afflicted with the disease which is a puzzler to the local physicians.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight at 7:30 adopt the new saloon ordinance and to issue licenses to the saloons for the coming year. Some other business may also be taken up as it is the last meeting of the old city council, Messrs. Ferguson and Cople taking the seats of J. N. Nelson and Pat Hennessey next Tuesday night, when the council meets again.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
Get Ship.—Lieutenant Stone of the Marshfield Naval Reserves, has received a letter from the head of the Oregon Department confirming that although the Oregon Naval Militia. This was secured by Senators Chamberlain and Bourne who had the Naval Department reconsider its decision to sell the Boston and agree to spend $17,500 in repairs on the vessel and order it sent to Oregon to be used as training ship for all the divisions in the state.

NORTH BEND SCHOOLS.
Curry Still Dry.—"Bill" Gordon returned today from a several weeks stay in Curry county. He reports that although the county went "wet" at the recent election, aspirants to run saloons there are having difficulty in securing sufficient signers to petitions for the places. He killed a number of wild hogs, the progeny of swine that escaped from settlers years ago and are now running at large in the woods, and got one fine bear hide which he brought up to Dr. Hayes.

—A HAPPY NEW YEAR!—
