married by Justice Penneck at his office in this city. Both are well known residents of the Coquille valley and they will reside on Mr. Yoakam's ranch near Coquille. Mr. Yoakam was late republican candidate for sheriff of Coos county and while he didn't win the office he won what was better—a wife.

Whist Club Meets—The Evergreen Whist Club meets tomorrow at the home of Mrs. F. P. Norton.

Funeral Sunday.—The funeral of Miss Grace Bunch will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. from the Wilson Undertaking parlors, Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating.

Find Gas.—G. W. Shelly has returned from a business trip to Bandon and reports that the oil well near there is now down 900 feet and that a strong flow of gas was struck. They are now more hopeful than ever of striking oil.

Loses Valuable Hound.—Hillis Short, who is in from Ten Mile, reports that one of his valuable varmint dogs has disappeared. Whether it strayed away, was stolen or killed is not known, but Mr. Short has offered a reward for any information concerning the dog.

Now In Firm.—Announcement is made that Will Stauff who has been identified with the Stauff grocery for some time has been taken into membership in the firm by his brother, Chas. Stauff, and he with others compose the Stauff Grocery Company who henceforth will conduct the business.

New Assistant.—Miss Ellen Rudnas has taken a position as assistant librarian in the Marshfield public library. She expects to become fitted for librarian under the instruction of Miss Jamieson. The library has received from local people, Harry Winkler being one of the contributors of valuable works.

Injures Wrist.—Miss M. F. George, a sister of Miss George, instructor in music in the Marshfield schools, sustained a badly dislocated wrist caused by a defective walk near the L. W. Myrick home in Ferndale. A plank gave way underneath, causing her to fall heavily. She is staying at the home of Mrs. F. A. Hazard and was reported getting along nicely today.

Boat Sinks.—The Teddy Bear, the Smith-Powers Logging Company's launch was sunk last evening in the rear of Ekblad's hardware store. She was tied to the wharf in such a way that she almost stood on end at low tide and the flooding tide filled and swamped her. She went clear to the bottom and A. H. Powers and a gang of men had to work all forenoon to float her. The extent of the damage is not known.

May Open Store.—J. E. Quick made a business trip to Marshfield Thursday and returned Saturday. He went over in connection with matters pertaining to the People's Co-operative Company, and stated that the prospects of a satisfactory adjustment of the company's affairs were encouraging. An effort will be made to secure a small loan from each of the stockholders, which, if accomplished, will enable the company to resume business.—Coquille Herald.

Is Knighted.—Word has been received here that Dr. C. M. Esborn, formerly pastor of the Swedish Lutheran churches on the Bay, but now located at New Haven, Conn., is one of the ten Swedish-Americans who were recently knighted by King Gustavus of Sweden. The Royal Order of Wasa was conferred upon him. King Gustavus bestowed the royal honors in appreciation of activity in religious and charitable movements. While Dr. Esborn has been absent from here for quite awhile, he is well remembered by the older residents who will appreciate the recognition given him.

Nyal's Carbo-Witch Hazel Salve

Is an emollient and healing application of great value for the healing of Burns, Wounds and cuts. It is strongly antiseptic and by its mild stimulating action starts healthy granulations from the bottom of the wound, thus exerting a strong tendency to heal without a scar.
