MONEY ON THE "MULE"

DISCUSSING the present political outlook in a story in the Pacific Monthly John E. Lathrop makes the following interesting observation with reference to the present attitude of Wall street towards the democratic party:

"It is possible today to write plainly that the financial interests centered in Wall street have turned to the democratic party and hope to capture it for the 1912 campaign. The money of 'the interests' has been poured in the late elections to elect democratic candidates in the East. None who boasts even moderate information now questions the accuracy of that assertion. In Ohio, Judson Harmon's campaign was supplied with funds without stint; in New York, John A. Dix, nominated by Charles Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, was supported by all the power of 'the Street'; in New Jersey, Woodrow Wilson had assistance from the same strongboxes; in Indiana, John Kern in his fight against Senator Beveridge needed only to ask for campaign funds to get them in plenitude. It was the same wherever in the East democrats went to the electorate. 'The story related last month in this department—that J. P. Morgan early last summer issued orders to his subordinates in banking and industry to support Harmon—proved to have been true; but it was likewise true that he gave orders to support other democratic nominees, and that Wilson and Dix and Kern were on his list of favored seekers for political honors. Western followers of Thomas Jefferson may as well face the truth—the cards have been stacked against the popular rule in the democratic party; for, unless signs are misleading, the current is running strongly towards the Morgan control of that party."

How is such friendship as this going to affect the mule?

What's The Use,
Michael Cahady left $11,000,000—for the same old reason.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

The Old Bachelor Says:
"Sometimes winning a wife is a losing game."

Talking is all the exercise some Coos Bay women get.

Some poor people have nerve that would make them feel if directed at dollars instead of doughnuts.

A small man always has one weapon he can use against a great big man; he can "talk" about him.

Almost any man would be willing to let his wife handle the money if he could be dead sure of his own allowance.

THE DRUGGIST'S TRIALS.
(By H. Winkler.)

When busy with prescriptions With work up to the ears A pretty miss with furbelows Comes stepping briskly in, We hurry 'round to see what use That we may be to her— She asks us for a 2 cent stamp, Then says, "Oh, thank you, sir."

Perhaps we may be taking stock Or something just as bad The little things that worry us Do sometimes make us mad. When mounted on a ladder, Everything in turmoil To hear a piping voice speak up "10 cents worth castor oil."

We may be at the phone ourselves, With business rushed to death, Sending orders, calling hacks, No time for even breath, With the receiver to our ear We inwardly do groan To hear "Oh, doctor, if you please, Do let me use your phone."

Then saunters in the well dressed man 5 cent cigars he'll buy And shove at you a "ten-spot" bill— All we can do is sigh. When closing time comes 'round and we, Have put up the last pill Here comes a prescription That will take a half-hour to fill.

Some say we have an easy time They surely do not know The trials of a druggist, And the things that worry so.

RAINCOATS sold at LUND'S place $2.50 and $2.75. — CLOSING OUT. — 215 Broadway.

Why All Progressive Merchants Are Using Electric Light

Progressive merchants everywhere have found the wonderful General Electric Mazda Lamp an immeasurable benefit to their business. This lamp radiates brilliant white rays nearly like those of the sun. This superior quality of artificial light is produced by a rare metal filament that not only radiates a perfect light, but gives nearly three times as much light as the ordinary incandescent—and costs no more to burn. It is this remarkable combination of facts that is causing thousands of people to have their houses and places of business wired for electric light. In fact, this new G-E Mazda Lamp is swiftly revolutionizing artificial lighting. It is making electricity the universal illuminant.

You owe it to yourself to at least come in and see this wonderful lamp. We can show you to your own satisfaction that this G-E Mazda Lamp immensely increases the advantages of electric light.
