COQUILLE IS EASY VICTOR

Basketball Game Announced for Tonight Played Thursday Evening Instead.

TWO VIEWS OF THE GAME.
Tell me not in 'mournful numbers
That the score was 24 to 8
That our basketball goddess slumbers
And her plays are out of date.

Were our players flabbergasted
Were we given a fair, square deal
Must we bow to some dodgish
Bunch of youngsters from Coquille.

THE PESSIMIST.

This world is so crowded with things
That amuse,
There is really no reason for woe
And the one who gets sore at a basket ball score
Is the funniest thing I know.

THE OPTIMIST.

Owing to a mistake on the part of Marshfield, the game advertised for today should have been Thursday. As a result the Marshfield team was not prepared for any kind of a game, but at about 7 o'clock last night, after holding a conference with the Coquille boys, they got the Tabernacle into shape and played the game, the result being 24 to 8 in favor of the Coquille team. The game was very fast and exciting, Marshfield taking the lead at the start, but Coquille, at the end of the first half was ahead 2 points, the score being 8 to 6. During the last part of the last half, however, Coquille had things its own way, Marshfield having tired after having had the hardest practice of the season in the afternoon not expecting the game until the next day.

Coquille showed fine form and its team work was excellent. Marshfield also did well, considering the short notice they had and the condition they were in.

The game was clean, throughout and the crowd was well satisfied. Coquille plays North Bend at North Bend today and returns home Saturday.

Owen Knowlton referred the game and Pat Flanagan acted as Umpire.

MRS. J. N. NELSON has been quite ill for some time.

MRS. T. J. MACGENN of Empire was a Marshfield visitor yesterday.

DR. W. A. TOYE was able to be down today after being confined to his home a week.

A. W. MYERS and wife of North Bend leave tomorrow for Portland and other northern points.

W. J. GORDON, who has been employed in the printing shops of this section for some time, was called to Canby, Oregon, this week by a telegram announcing that his wife had been run over and killed by a train. She was struck on a crossing while en route to church.

D. OLIVER KENYON, manager of the Lakeside hotel, was in the city on business today. He reports that Ten Mile lake has been rising rapidly the last few days. The road is in bad shape and says it may result in an effort to have the road changed to secure a better highway.

BANQUET CAPT. REYNOLDS.

Naval Reserve Officers Welcome Portland Man to Coos Bay.

Last night at the Chandler, Mayor Straw, who is in command of the Third and Fourth Divisions Oregon Naval Militia, gave a banquet in honor of Capt. J. J. Reynolds, assistant navigating officer of the Oregon Naval Militia, Portland.

Capt. Reynolds is leaving on the Breakwater Saturday and it is with much regret that the officers and men of both divisions see him go. He carries back with him a report of the condition and strength of the local divisions which he inspected last Monday night, that reflects great credit upon the entire organization. He was very much pleased and surprised to see the progress the men have made in so short
