IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

TWO bills that are now before the Oregon legislature look to bettering conditions with reference to the handling of county funds. One bill, introduced by Representative Brownhill of Yamhill, provides that the county funds shall be deposited in banks offering the highest rate of interest after the matter has been submitted to bids.

The other bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Barrett and provides that banks shall pay two per cent interest upon county deposits and prescribes how the funds shall be distributed. The Barrett bill is modelled after the California law and the essential features of the proposed law are as follows:

Section 1. The County Treasurer of any county within this state is hereby authorized to deposit any public funds in his hands not required for immediate use in any bank doing business within the state organized under the national banking laws of the United States, or under the laws of this state; provided, that at or before the date of such deposit the bank receiving same shall furnish to said officer, as security for moneys so deposited, bonds of the United States of America, or of the state of Oregon, or of any county, municipality, or school district within said state, to be approved, in case of deposit by any County Treasurer, by the county court of the same county, the market value of such security to be at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of such deposit.

Section 2. Moneys so deposited shall be subject to call, and the bank or deposit shall pay interest thereon at the rate of two per cent per annum on the daily balances, as shown by the books of said bank, all said interest to be credited by said treasurer to the general fund of state or county, as the case may be.

Section 3. No deposit shall be made in any one bank which shall exceed fifty per cent of the paid up capital stock of said bank, and at the time of making application for such deposit said bank shall furnish to the officer to whom such application is made a certificate from the National Bank Examiner of the district, or of the state Examiner of the state, according as the bank may be national or state showing the solvency and stability of the bank, and if such treasurer is not satisfied therewith, he shall have authority to cause a special examination to be made, and it shall be discretionary with such treasurer to grant or refuse any application for such deposit.

Section 4. No treasurer shall deposit at any one time in any one bank more than twenty per cent of the public moneys in his hands available for such deposit while there are other qualified banks requesting such deposits, and it shall be his duty to distribute the funds equitably, as far as possible, among solvent and substantial applicants.

Of the two measures introduced

Senator Barrett's bill seems preferable and it should pass. It is a measure in the interest of the taxpayers of the state. Should the bill become a law the respective counties will be able to collect interest upon their idle funds.

CAPTAIN JOYNES COMES WEST

Will Join His New Command; the Revenue Cutter Tahoma at Seattle.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 23. — On his way to join his new command, the United States revenue cutter Tahoma, now at Seattle, Captain W. W. Joynes passed through Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Joynes, Captain Joynes takes the place of Captain J. H. Quinlan, who recently became superintendent of lifesaving stations in this district. Until recently Captain Joynes has been superintendent of life-saving stations at Elizabeth City, N. C.

Captain Joynes was here last summer while on his way to Coos Bay to make a special examination into charges that the life-saving crew was derelict in duty at the time of the wrecking of the steamer Czarina and the loss of her crew. During the Spanish-American war Captain Joynes was navigating officer of the McCullough, which was then Dewey's dispatch boat. In the winter of 1900-1901 he was here as the executive officer of the U. S. S. Gedney, one of the coast survey boats, which remained here all that winter.

SCORES LORIMER ACCUSERS

Senator Burrows of Michigan Upholds Illinois Politician.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23. — "There was absolutely no proof, direct or indirect, from which legitimate inference could be drawn that a single member of the Illinois general assembly was corruptly influenced to vote for Lorimer," was the conclusion of Senator Burrows, in a speech in the Senate defending the majority report of the committee on privileges and elections confirming the right of Senator Lorimer to his seat in the Senate. Summarizing the testimony of White, Link, Beckmeyer and Holtzlaw, Burrows says it was obvious that there was nothing in any of their statements which would justify the conclusion that their testimony as to bribery is true. Burrows said of White that he was so devoid of all sense of honor or shame that he was ready to barter his vote for anything to anybody who could bring him personal gain.

HILL'S OREGON PLANS.

Several Railway Extensions to be Rushed This Year.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 23. — But two of the big Hill construction projects in Oregon are on the list for heavy work during 1911. Extension of the Oregon Trunk from Bend to Klamath Falls, building on the proposed line from a point near Bend into Harney Valley, an extension of the Pacific & Eastern from Butte Falls across the Cascade range to a connection with the Oregon Trunk, and a supposed east-west line across the state are to be held in abeyance for the present at least. The two favored projects will be the United Railway line, which will be completed from its present terminus to Tillamook as fast as the work can be done economically, and the Oregon Electric to be built from Salem to Eugene in 1911.

This summary of work was given out by John F. Stevens, chief of the Hill forces in this field, on his return from Chicago and the East, where he has been in consultation with the heads of the system.

WILL COME LATER.

C. C. Chapman of the Portland Commercial club in a letter to the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce says the proposed visit of Portland business here on the Auvil was called off on account of the storm delaying the vessel so long at the Columbia river. He and others were aboard ready to come but finally gave up. He says he hopes to arrange the trip for an early date.

OPERA HOUSE NEARLY DONE

Manager Bernell Expects to Open Masonic Sometime This Week.

The repairs are almost completed and Mr. Bernell expects to open the Masonic Opera House sometime this week.

From a scenic and electrical standpoint the play will be one of merit. Miss Frances Roberts is the ingenue, and during the time she has been on the coast she has made quite a record for herself.

Mr. Sidney Trego is the juvenile and says he feels no scruples about making good with the public of Marshfield as he has done good in many other cities through the middle west.

Mr. Frank Burke is the character man, in role of old men and in character make-ups Mr. Burke is an artist.

Miss Babbie Gafe always feels at home in the rough soubrettes. She has just completed a ten weeks engagement with the Ye Liberty playhouse in Oakland, California.

Mr. E. R. Holland is the character and heavy man. He comes from a successful engagement in Southern Oregon where he more than made good. Other plays to be presented are "The Wolf," "The Christian," "The Banner," Rex Beach's novel; "The Gamblers," and all of the latest plays.

MILL DEAL IS BEING CLOSED

Organization of Company to Remove Reynolds Plant to Coquille is Completed.

COQUILLE, Ore., Jan. 21.— The Herald says: "The Coquille Lumber company, the new company formed to take over the plant of the Reynolds mill on the Bay, expects to have the machinery moved to Coquille and in operation within the next 60 or 90 days. Monday morning the stockholders, numbering about 40 of the business men of the city and a few outsiders, met at the court house and proceeded to organize. The subscription books of the company were opened and signed, by-laws governing the corporation adopted and articles of incorporation drawn up. The capital stock was placed at $50,000. The articles of incorporation state that the company proposes to do a general lumbering, logging and manufacturing business.

A board of five directors was elected by the stockholders as follows:

J. A. Collier, Coquille; C. A. Gage, Coquille; Geo. W. Beale, Marshfield; L. J. Simpson, North Bend; L. J. Seeley, Coquille.

A directors meeting was held at which the following men were elected officers of the company:

J. A. Collier, president.
C. A. Gage, vice-president.
R. H. Mast, treasurer.
M. O. Hawkins, secretary.

J. A. Collier and C. A. Gage left for the Bay to take an inventory of the plant and it is intended to begin moving the mill at once. A force of men will be put to work at either end, the one here putting in the pilings and flooring and the one on the Bay taking down the machinery and buildings.

The site secured for the mill is considered a very good one, being close to town and having the river on one side and the railroad on the other. The railroad company will put in a side track to the mill large enough to accommodate 30 cars or more.

Coquille people are jubilant over the certainty of again having two mills running in the near future. The two will employ in the neighborhood of 60 to 75 men.
