The Red Cross Tanning Process

The ordinary sole is tanned in six weeks; suits used to have the tanning patch and burn the leather. This is why ordinary shoes feel hot and heavy, why they draw your feet. The Red Cross sole is tanned by a special process that takes six months—you can bend it double when new.

to command the confidence of the public, must be as frank and sincere as talks with personal friends. You never think of exaggerating to a friend—why think of it in talking to the public? The reputation of the house is the background of success. The public appreciates straightforwardness."

It's a habit of ours to sell the best of Shoes—for Men and Women. Our Shoes have character just as much as the person who wears them. Choice selected leathers, skillful shoe building, correct styles—all the little points well looked after serve to make the shoes we sell—"Shoes of character."

North Bend News

Chas. Winsor has purchased a Hupmobile.

The Mizpah Bible class will hold a special meeting tonight.

Mrs. Victor Wittig underwent an operation this morning at Mercy hospital and is getting along nicely.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ike Freeland of Gardiner. Mr. Freeland was formerly engineer of the mill here and Mrs. Freeland is a sister of Walter Robertson of Millington.

Mrs. C. A. McKellips, president of Mothers and Teachers' club, read a paper on John Ruskin, Tuesday morning before the high school. When she appeared on the platform she was greeted with the Chautauqua salute. Her talk showed careful thought and broad knowledge of Ruskin and his principles. Both pupils and visitors speak highly of this talk. It is considered one of the most helpful and instructive ever given before the North Bend High school.

LOCAL GLEANINGS

THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)

OREGON, Feb. 9.—Fair tonight except occasional rain in northwest. Friday, fair in east and rain in west. High winds along coast from southeast.

McLain Family Ill.—Hugh McLain and Miss Alice McLain are all quite ill at their home of severe attacks of la grippe.

Is Ill.—Miss Violet Henderson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is confined to her home by a severe attack of the grip.

Fixtures Arrive.—The furnishing and fixtures for the new barber shop which Chas. Hunter and Jack Clarey will open in the Alliance building on Front street arrived on the Breakwater today. It will be several days before they will be able to open their new shop.

Is Fined.—Justice Pennock today imposed a fine of $10 and costs on Simon Liljeroth, who was charged with assaulting Herman Bjorquist at Beaver Hill the other night. Bjorquist sustained a bad gash across the face where Liljeroth hit him with a lard pail.

Girl Is Hurt.—Margaret Powers, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers, was quite severely hurt last evening. She was playing with her pet dog and kittens when the dog ran against her, throwing her down so that her head struck the cement sidewalk. She suffered severely all night and this morning but it is hoped that it will not result seriously.

Favor New Bill.—At a public meeting at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce last night, a resolution asking Senator Chase and Representatives Rackliff and Peirce to do all in their power to have the Workmen's Optional Compensation Act passed at this session of the legislature was adopted. Telegrams were sent to the legislators apprising them of the action.

ADVERTISING.

Please bear in mind that advertising never added one dollar to the value of any article advertised. Advertising merely tells the value, it does not create it. Goods must have merit in them to sell, and they must also have merit when sold to stay sold. A sale does not end with the making of it nowadays; it never ends as long as the man is using the article you sell.

Once upon a time there was a young fellow and he lived in a town about like Marshfield. There were many young fellows in the town, and they had a way of giving the girls a pretty good time. But hard times came and cash was scarce. So this young fellow thought he would save money by giving the girls candy that cost less. He bought the kind that is all fancy box. He thought he would be popular. The girls said "Oh, my!" when they saw it, but when they ate it they said "Oh, me!" It tasted something fierce.

When this young fellow came again, he got the frosty mitt (whatever that may be), and he found the girls starting out boating with the other boys. He saved a few cents on candy, but he had lost his prestige, and that is a bad thing to lose. He felt all cut up. He thought it over. Then he borrowed some cash and bought each girl a box of WHITMAN'S and had them sent around to their houses. After a few days he went to call and instead of the frosty mitt, he received the glad prestige and something besides, and now he has prestige enough to fill a barn.

Moral: Get the best. Get WHITMAN'S. Get it at
