POET MILLER IS VERY ILL

Joaquin Miller Suffers General Breakdown at San Francisco.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 16.—Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, is in the hospital from a general breakdown. He passed a comfortable night and is resting easily today. His recovery is a matter of grave doubt.

ROCKEFELLER IS NOT SICK

Report That Oil Magnate Was Sick Denied at Hotel and By Friends.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 17.—Inquiry at the hotel where John D. Rockefeller is staying, brought the information that there is not the slightest foundation for the rumor that he is ill. He took his usual automobile ride this afternoon.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Reports from Augusta, Ga., that John D. Rockefeller is seriously ill are denied by his friends and associates in this city and at the Rockefeller offices.

Precipitation . . . . . .24
Wind—Southeast; cloudy.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.) OREGON, Feb. 16.—Fair to night and Friday.

Hold Social.—The Foresters of America gave a social at their hall last evening for their wives, lady friends and a few other invited guests. Games and music were followed by a sumptuous banquet and this was followed by dancing.

Has Relapse.—Don Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lyons, who underwent an operation for appendicitis some time ago suffered a relapse and had to undergo another operation at Aberdeen, Wash. He is getting along nicely, according to letters from Mrs. Lyons.

Sold to Pittsburg.—According to Portland reports, Harry Gardner who pitched for Coquille a couple of years ago and who married Reta Johnson there, has been sold by Vancouver to Pittsburg for $3,000. Gardner pitched for Vancouver last year and was picked up by big league scouts.

Crab Bill Killed.—Representative Peirce's bill to repeal the law prohibiting the shipment of crabs from Coos Bay was killed by the Senate Committee at Salem yesterday. The action was probably due to the efforts of Senator Chase to whom scores of protests were sent by Coos Bay people.

Wins Case.—J. W. Bennett today received word that the Oregon supreme court had sustained the decision of the lower court in the case of S. D. Magnes vs. Henry Sengstacken which was in favor of Mr. Magnes. Involved in the case was the title to about twenty-three acres of tidelands near Marshfield which Mr. Magnes purchased at sheriff's sale.

Memorial Exercises.—Frances Willards Memorial Day will be observed Friday, February 17, at the M. E. Church at 3 P. M., by the W. C. T. U. union. Evangelist Williams will give an address followed by talks by ministers of various churches of Marshfield. Miss E. Roy will sing "I Sing Because I Am Happy" also songs will be rendered by Mrs. McCrary and Smith. Every one is most cordially invited.

Makes Get Away.—Art Jensen, a sailor from San Francisco, broke away from Marshal Carter last night while the latter was taking him to the city jail. Jensen, who was intoxicated had been causing a disturbance on Front street and Marshal Carter took a hold on his arm to take him to jail to sober up. Jensen wrenched loose and by his nimble foot work got away, Carter not making any long chase. He will probably be picked up later and made to understand how to behave himself.

SUFFRAGE IN IOWA. DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 16.—The Iowa House of Representatives' Committee on Elections today recommended for passage the joint resolution favoring woman suffrage.
