TWENTY-TWO ARE INJURED IN SOUTHERN PACIFIC WRECK

Broken Rail Cause of Disastrous Accident Near Palisade.

THREE VICTIMS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Scene of Wreck Is One of Worst Places On Salt Lake Division.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

RENO, Nev., Feb. 21.—Twenty-two men and women are lying in a hospital at Elko, Nev., today, being treated for injuries received last night when six cars of Southern Pacific passenger train east bound No. 10, left the rails one mile west of Palisade. Three of the passengers are acknowledged to be seriously injured though the railroad officials do not expect them to prove fatal. The wreck was due to a broken rail which had a flaw in its manufacture.

The crash came just as the passengers in the sleepers were preparing to retire. Several cars went crashing down the steep embankment almost into the Humboldt river. The fact that the scene of the wreck is considered one of the most dangerous pieces of track in the entire Salt Lake division prevented a most disastrous wreck as all the trains are driven at slow speed through the Palisade canyon.

ABSTRACT LAW DEFEATED.

Small Abstractor May Open Books at Will.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 21.—Representative Cole's bill making it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to engage in the business of making or compiling abstracts of title to real property without having for use in such business a complete set of abstract books, was unmercifully beaten in the house when it came up for final passage. It had few defenders and many detractors. It was argued against the bill that it would tend to compel small abstractors to go out of business while those who favored the bill said it was a measure deemed necessary for the protection of the public who were continually being supplied with abstracts that were not correct and against which damage the injured public had no recourse. The bill provided that abstract companies give a bond of $10,000 for the payment of any damages that may accrue to any person by reason of any error, deficiency or mistake. Abstract companies in counties of less than 10,000 population were compelled to give a bond for $5,000 instead of $10,000.

DECISION IN PORTLAND CASE

Judge Coke Passes On Fire Alarm Suit—Other Cases Up.

Judge John S. Coke has forwarded to the county clerk of Multnomah county his decision in the case of the National Automatic Fire Alarm company vs. the City of Portland in which he makes the temporary injunction granted the plaintiff permanent. The case was heard by him while on the bench in Portland some time ago.

The city of Portland sought to cancel a contract with the company on the ground that it had never been reduced to writing and that the rights claimed by the company could only be obtained through a franchise. The contract was entered into in 1902, according to the official records of the fire commission of Portland, the company being given the right to connect up with the city's fire alarm system. The company installed the fire alarm boxes, many on direct orders from city officials but in 1910, Mayor Lane attempted to annul the contract on the grounds above given. The company secured an injunction prohibiting the city from detaching its boxes from the city fire alarm system and Judge Coke has made it permanent.

Other Cases. Judge Coke has under consideration this week the bill of exceptions filed by the attorneys of Frank Garrison under death sentence for slaying Roy Perkins. An endeavor to secure a new trial is being made. Other cases before the court this week include the case of the Bank of Bandon vs. J. H. Price et al and also the case of Rush vs. Weatherly, the latter being from North Bend.

LOGGING ROAD SUIT IS HEARD

Case That Maybe Farreaching Is Begun By Local Land Owners.

Declaring that a logging road is not a common carrier and consequently cannot exercise the right of eminent domain in securing or condemning right of way across private property, Andrew Sanderson and Alfred Brunell of South Slough have begun suit against the Smith-Powers Logging company to compel them to remove their tracks from across the latter's land. The evidence is being submitted before Miss Annie Sain, appointed a special referee by Judge Harris, to take the testimony.

It seems that the county court on petition of the Coos Bay Timber and Coal company ordered a right of way opened across the land of Sanderson and Brunell to permit logging operations and later granted a franchise to the Smith-Powers company permitting them to lay their tracks in this right of way.

If Sanderson and Brunell should win, the logging companies of Oregon will be up against a serious situation as such a decision would be far reaching in its effect. L. A. Liljeqvist of Coquille represents the plaintiffs in the case.

Three men, at present confined in the jail, will be placed at work on the roads tomorrow morning.
