The treaty and the assurances from Japan, as to the continuance of the recent agreement are exactly as you approved when the secretary of state and I explained them to you. AUTO LINE TO START SOON

A. N. Denny of Drain and Capt. Edwards of Allegany Plan Service.

A. N. Denny of Drain was in Marshfield yesterday with Capt. C. E. Edwards of Allegany perfecting arrangements for a fast auto and boat line service between Coos Bay and Drain. Arrangements were completed and the service will be inaugurated as soon as the roads are in condition for auto travel which will probably be early in May.

The route will be by boat between Marshfield and Allegany and thence by auto over the new Loon Lake road to Scottsburg and thence to Drain via Elkton.

The schedule agreed upon will provide the fastest service that has ever been provided between Coos Bay and the Southern Pacific main line. Boats are to leave here at 6:30 a. m. daily for Allegany where they will connect with the auto and the sixty mile auto run from Allegany to Drain is to be made in six hours. This will enable parties leaving here in the morning to catch the 4 o'clock train in the afternoon for Portland, arriving in the Rose City the same night.

From Drain to Coos Bay, owing to the grades, it is figured that even better time can be made. The plan is for the auto to leave Drain after the arrival of the 7:30 a. m. train at Drain and by making direct connections at Allegany with the through boat, the passengers will reach Marshfield early in the evening or late in the afternoon.

By eliminating the landings on the river, Capt. Edwards plans to make better than a two hour service between Allegany and Marshfield.

Two autos will be installed on the start and may be others will be added later, this depending on the travel.

It is planned to make a rate of $11 between here and Drain which, it is claimed will be cheaper than on most any other route on account of the fast service eliminating stopovers and hotel bills.

New Road Talked.

There is now talk of opening another new road to connect up with the Loon Lake-Allegany road which will materially reduce the distance from Coos Bay to Drain. The plan calls for opening a direct route from Loon Lake to Elkton, a distance of about ten miles will eliminate the long trip via Scottsburg. Right of way for this road has been secured but funds have not been provided. It is hoped to get part of this road built this year so that it can be completed next season.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 23.—The President of the United States, the California delegation in Congress, and the republican majority in the legislature all were attacked in the State Senate today in the debate over the Japanese treaty. Senator Caminetti announced that unless a majority acted, he would offer resolutions calling upon all governors and legislatures on the coast to memorialize congress. "Not only that," he cried, "but I promise you that unless we get action there will be a mass meeting of the people of this state whose thunderous voice will reach even the President and compel him to stop foisting upon the people of this nation with this treaty. "Saturday night there will be three hundred thousand people on the streets of San Francisco celebrating the coming of the Panama-Pacific exposition and we can have the mass meeting, then."

The secretary of state informs us that the Japanese ambassador gives every assurance there will be no immigration of laborers into the United States, as they cannot leave without Japanese passports, lacking which, under our laws, they may be deported. I think the treaty will get the approval of our people when they understand its provisions."

HAT PIN JAB CAUSED DEATH

Lupie Carranza Victim of Injury By Girl, Writes Jesse Day.

That Lupie Carranza's death was due to blood poisoning following a jab by hat pin in the hands of his girl is the news conveyed here today in a letter from Jesse Day, who has been in San Francisco. Day says he was at Carranza's bedside most of the time during his last illness and its fatal termination was a surprise to everyone.

Day says that the physicians admitted it was a case of blood poisoning in the right leg. An operation was performed but it was too late, the blood poisoning having started decay.

Later, Day says that Carranza's girl told him and others that during a quarrel a few months ago, she jabbed him in the leg with a hat pin and that ever since he had been troubled with the apparently small wound. Since Day went to San Francisco, Carranza had been looking after him, being in no condition to fight. The first that Carranza knew about his condition being bad was when he trained for the fight with Rufus Williams who won an easy victory over him, owing to Carranza being in bad shape.

Carranza was only 27 years old, was born at Oroville, Cal., and had fought 115 fights.

Day says that he is now training Roy Moore, the champion bantam weight of the coast. Day is slated for a bout with O. C. Tucker at Klamath Falls, Oregon, in April.

MUST CLEAN UP DIRTY STREETS

Commissioner Lawhorne Issues Important Notice to Property Owners.

Street Commissioner Lawhorne has issued a notice that he has found it necessary for the public good to enforce an ordinance that has long been on the city records but more observed in the breach than the performance. It is that persons be compelled to clean up refuse and debris on streets especially that left after wood has been dumped. After every rain this refuse is washed to cross streets causing back water and washouts, making some streets almost impassable until special work is performed by the street department at much additional expense.

The following is a copy of the notice and ordinance which commissioner Lawhorne says will be strictly enforced hereafter:

NOTICE

All persons are hereby notified that hereafter they will be required to remove all debris from the street or alley caused by wood for fuel being placed or piled in said street or alley and attention is also called to Section 8 of Ordinance No. 293 of the City of Marshfield, which hereafter will be enforced and is as follows:

Section 8. It shall be unlawful for any person to place on any sidewalk, crosswalk, street or alley any article or thing whatever, unless permitted to do so by the Common Council; provided, that wood for fuel may be allowed to be piled and to remain in the street in such manner as to cause the least obstruction to public travel, not to exceed twenty-four hours for each cord of load thereof, and not to exceed eight days in the aggregate, the debris from the same to be removed from the street or alley by the owner of said wood immediately after its removal.

Validity of Election of Illinois Senator May Go Over.

BEVERIDGE ATTACKS COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Statement Furnished Senate Not Same As Signed by Members.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—That the validity of the election of Senator Lorimer of Illinois will not come to a vote in the Senate today, and probably not in several days if at all at this session was made evident in an interchange which preceded the long anti-Lorimer speech delivered today by Senator Beveridge. Lorimer did not listen to the Indiana senator's speech. He has sat through most of the other attacks on his election but he does not intend to speak again. In the course of his speech, Beveridge practically charged that the report in the case originally prepared and signed by the members was not the same report which afterward was submitted to the Senate. When appealed to say whether this was a fact, Senator Dewey said he could not remember all the details and suggested that the Indiana senator call on some other witnesses. In a brisk colloquy between Beveridge and Dewey, the latter declared his opinion of the case had been formed from an abstract of the testimony made by counsel, "but it was made by the counsel for the prosecution," he added.

Beveridge made quite an extensive analysis of Lorimer's statement of yesterday especially his recitation of his acts of kindness to constituents and others "yet praiseworthy as it is, such conduct is not peculiar to the sitting member," declared Beveridge, "for there are senators here and thousands of private citizens everywhere who have done much the same thing. The sitting members' generosity which all of us admire and approve are not pertinent to the case for no one doubts his benevolence."
